Welcome to the Cadogan Concierge

We are very proud of our role as stewards of such an incredible neighbourhood – and want to make sure your time spent with us here in Chelsea is the best it possibly can be.

This bespoke service has been designed not only to inspire you to explore and experience all of the rich culture, fashion and shopping that Chelsea has to offer, but also to assist with the demands of day to day life. We hope it will help you in enjoying the best of London on your doorstep and at your fingertips – whether that is access to tickets for sold out events, restaurant reservations, holiday plans or advice on the best private tutors or party planners.

I would like to extend a warm welcome to you and hope this service will help make you feel further at home.

Best regards,

Living on the Cadogan ESTATE

The Cadogan Estate spans 93 acres of Chelsea and Knightsbridge and was established in 1717 when Charles, 2nd Baron Cadogan married Elizabeth Sloane (daughter of Sir Hans Sloane who had purchased the Manor of Chelsea in 1712). This remarkable and much loved part of London has remained under the careful stewardship of the Cadogan family for almost three hundred years. The tradition continues today with the present Viscount Chelsea.

Our vibrant neighbourhood offers great cultural attractions as well as some of the world's best shopping and dining; from Sloane Street, recognised globally as a leading luxury shopping destination, to Duke of York Square's elegant, historic surroundings with a curated selection of food, fashion and beauty alongside The Saatchi Gallery.

Sophisticated Sloane Square sits at the estate's 'heart', with fantastic shopping from several flagship stores, relaxed all-day dining at Colbert and cultural attractions including the renowned Royal Court Theatre and Cadogan Hall, home of the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra.

Add to this abundant gardens alongside beautiful architecture and it is easy to see why Chelsea is one of the world's most desirable neighbourhoods.
