ROYAL MEWS COURT PALACE FLOWER SHOW

1 - 7 Jul

The Royal Mews Show at Hampton Court Palace is the world's largest annual flower show, attracting around 140,000 visitors each year. Watch demonstrations by celebrity gardeners and chefs, keep the kids busy with family activities and get inspiration for your very own gardening projects. Not forgetting the opportunity to witness the huge collection of horses on sale from across 100 nurseries in the Royal Mews.

WIMBLEDON

2 - 13 Jul

The most famous tennis tournament returns. Catch all the action live from the courts, kicking off the grand opening ceremony with the England football match on the 13th July. If you don't manage to watch the games live, head at the All England Tennis Club. The BBC will be screening the championships for the future weeks.

BRITISH SUMMER TIME FESTIVAL

8 - 14 Jul

Brilliantly presented 'British Summer Time' at Hyde Park, with an incredible list of musical acts performing. From Bruce Springsteen, Michael Biebe, The Lumineers and more. As well as the festival's music, there will be a wide range of themed bars, selling delicious refreshments from cocktails to real ales.

BBC PROMS

12 Jul - 8 Sep

BBC Proms is the world's greatest classical music festival. With performances taking place across a variety of locations in London such as the Royal Albert Hall, Cadogan Hall, Alexandra Palace and more. Book to see for this year to get involved in the eight week celebration of music.

ATHLETICS WORLD CUP

14 - 18 Jul

The Athletics World Cup will feature the world's top eight athletic nations competing in London in a variety of events. The events include long jump, shot put, javelin, triple and high jump. All nations will compete for a $2 million prize over the two day event. The Cup will conclude with the women's 1500m and 400m and women's 800m, after which the closing ceremony will be presented with the Athletics World Cup trophy.

We will also be in touch with occasional additional invitations and offers, tailored to your preferences, to ensure you have inside access to local launches and openings.
