Welcome

Welcome to the April issue of Cadogan VIP.

The clocks have sprung forward and Easter is almost upon us. No celebration would be complete without the perfect Sunday lunch, so we have rallied the brilliant foodies of Pavilion Road to recommend the best ingredients, pairings and preparations for a great home cooked roast – including a mouth-watering recipe for lamb from Provenance Butcher.

Independently run shops such as these on Pavilion Road deliver a richer experience within the community and really enhance Chelsea's village feel. We take a look this month at some other local 'heroes', from bookHaus, Bentley's and Taschen to Vivienne Westwood's 'World's End' on King's Road.

Finally, we hope you enjoy your complimentary ticket to this year's Chelsea Art Fair, boasting an incredible range of contemporary art to discover and enjoy.

Until next month,

Hugh Seaborn

Chief Executive, Cadogan

Chocolate Tuesday

4 April – Chelsea Physic Garden
www.chelseaphysicgarden.co.uk

Tots with a passion for chocolate will love getting stuck into this fun educational session, for children aged 6-10. They will enjoy a tour of the garden, find out about the history and science of the confectionary and then create their own special chocolatey treats to take away.

United Kinska

On now until 17 Apr – Anthropologie Kings Road
www.anthropologie.com

Discover quirky ceramic sculptures from artist Kinska, known for her work surrounding the idea of animism – the concept that even inanimate objects are alive. The range of pieces in a refreshing palette of bright colours and contrasting black and white perfectly suits Anthropologie's bohemian atmosphere.

Lucy Bainbridge – Fermata

21 April to 2 June - The Foundry Gallery
www.thefoundrygallery.org

Contemplate London's impressive skyline with this new exhibition from Lucy Bainbridge. Inviting the viewer to take a 'fermata', a moment to reflect, the artist photographs the city at dawn before digitally enhancing her images to showcase London during rare moments of stillness.

From Selfie to Self-Expression

On now until 30 May- Saatchi Gallery
www.saatchigallery.com

Saatchi's eagerly anticipated exhibition arrives in Chelsea, exploring the incredible cultural status of the selfie. Learn about how this art form began with self-portraits from Rembrandt, Tracey Emin and Van Gogh right through to today's interpretations from some of the world's most photographed individuals.

Easter Chocolate Market

15 April – Duke of York Square
www.dukeofyorksquare.com

Get your chocolate fix and indulge with Duke of York Square's themed Fine Food Market. Featuring delicious cocoa inspired confectionary including chocofruit, handmade vegan delights and artisan macaroons, this is the perfect opportunity to find luxurious treats ahead of Easter Sunday.

The Ferryman

24 April to 20 May – Royal Court Theatre
www.royalcourttheatre.com

Internationally acclaimed director Sam Mendes, behind blockbuster hits including Skyfall, Spectre and American Beauty, makes his Royal Court debut with Jez Butterworth's new play. Set in rural Derry, Northern Ireland in 1981 during the height of the Troubles, this hugely anticipated piece of theatre will be a success with audiences and critics alike.

At Last: The Etta James Story

7 April – Cadogan Hall
www.cadoganhall.com

The story of iconic soul singer Etta James is brought to life for a magical evening at Cadogan Hall, including all of her greatest hits from 'At Last' through to 'I'd Rather Go Blind.'

Untethered

20 April to 30 May - Michael Hoppen Gallery
www.michaelhoppengallery.com

Two contrasting photographic series are combined by the Michael Hoppen Gallery for a sensitive exhibition that explores the vulnerability of young people. Discover Joe Szabo's 'Teenage' series that depicts youngsters at school during the seventies, and Sian Davey's 'Martha,' which captures the life of her stepdaughter growing up in Devon.

Private View for Dogs and their Owners

3 April - 25 Blythe Road
www.25blytheroad.com

Dog lovers rejoice. Local auctioneers 25 Blythe Road will be showcasing a special selection of pet portraits, with pieces themed around the relationship between the owner and their pet, while raising funds for the Kensington and Chelsea Foundation. Bring your pooch to a morning preview from 8.30-10.00am, where there will be special treats for all attendees, including dogs.

VEGETABLES FROM NATOORA

Chelsea's high-quality local fruit and veg supplier, Natoora, share their seasonal vegetable wisdom and serving suggestions:

- Tropea onion: Exclusively grown in southern Italy, Tropea onions have gained protected designation of origin status thanks to their unique flavour. The rich soil and mild weather in the area encourage these onions to develop their natural sugars, making them much sweeter than other varieties. Best served as a delicious caramelised onion crostini to start Easter proceedings, or finely sliced and added to a salad.

- Artichoke: Natoora's spiky artichokes are sourced directly from two growers in Northern Sardinia and Liguria. Located between the sea and the hills, the cool winter nights and sea breeze allow the plants to grow very slowly, resulting in an incredibly tender artichoke that is best eaten raw. Slice on a mandoline and toss with lemon juice, olive oil and salt to taste its freshness.

- Watercress: Grown using traditional methods and sourced directly from a family of growers in Chichester. Hand-picked and delivered on the same day, these crisp leaves are consistently fresh with peppery notes. For a fresh Easter salad serve with olive oil, salt and a lemon juice or even as a watercress pesto to accompany a roast.

LAMB FROM PROVENANCE BUTCHER

For that perfect, melt-in-your-mouth dish follow Provenance Butcher's Easter roast lamb shoulder for the ultimate crowd pleaser.

Garlic, rosemary and lemon marinated Easter roast lamb shoulder

Serves: 4

Preparation Time: 20 minutes

Cooking Time: 1 hour 20 minutes

Ingredients:

- 3 cloves of garlic, crushed
- 3 sprigs of rosemary, stalks removed and leaves finely chopped
- 4 anchovy fillets, finely chopped to a paste
- 2 x stock cubes
- 1 lemon, zest and juice
- 3 tbsp. of olive oil
- A pinch of ground cumin
- 1 x 1.5kg bone in lamb shoulder with the outside scored

1. Crumble stock cubes into a powder and combine with all ingredients minus the lamb shoulder in a large bowl. Mix thoroughly to create a paste and add more olive oil if the mixture is too thick. There's no need to add salt, as the anchovies provide a salty flavour.
2. Rub the thick paste all over the lamb shoulder and if you have time, leave in the fridge for a few hours or overnight to marinate.
3. Preheat oven to 180°C or Gas Mark 4. Remove the shoulder from the fridge and transfer onto a deep roasting tray. Pour any excess marinade back onto the shoulder.
4. Place in the oven and roast for approximately 2 hours.
5. Remove from the oven and allow to rest for 20 minutes before carving.

WINE FROM PAVILION WINE

2008 Rioja Reserva, Contino, Spain

Made with hand-selected grapes, this is a very classic wine which goes perfectly with lamb, roasted or pan-fried. Aged in oak and then in bottle, it is a medium plus bodied wine which shows unique terroir characteristics. Discover a mix of fresh and dry fruits, leather and tobacco aromas.

2012, Chateau Mille Roses. Margaux, Bordeaux, France

Grown in a 9.5 hectare vineyard, this wine is full bodied with perfumed supple fruits, oak flavours, very well balanced and with great structure. Mille Roses represents remarkable value for money compared to other Chateaux in the region. It's a great match with steak, grilled red meat or Moroccan Lamb.

SWEET TREATS FROM BREAD AHEAD

Renowned for their irresistibly tasty, soft doughnuts filled with utterly decadent and innovative flavours, Bread Ahead share their Easter special. Introducing the legendary Hot Cross Bun Doughnut, sure to take centre stage during the Easter weekend. These extra special doughnuts, or 'pillows of joy' as they are sometimes known, are laced with succulent raisins, candied peel and a hot cross bun mixed-spice, filled with a rich vanilla custard and topped with their very own little baked cross. Sink into pure deliciousness for a limited time only (from 3- 15 April). Freshly-made hot cross buns are also on offer for those after something a little less sweet.

CHEESE BOARD FROM LONDON CHEESEMONGERS

Celebrate Easter with the finest, in-season cheeses, as spring produces some of the best traditional flavours (thanks to the new grass which gives young, soft goat and sheep milk cheeses a clean fresh vibrancy).

For the ultimate spring cheeseboard choose a Hay-on-Wye, Mistralou, Crottin and Sleightlet, all made from fresh goat's milk, full of flavour and creamy in texture. Perail is another to look out for, made with sheep's milk and for those after a stronger but beautifully velvety taste. For more classic flavours, a fresh ricotta and curd as well as mozzarella, buratta and feta are the perfect addition to your board.
