Dining Out

This Mother's Day, Chelsea's restaurants are putting on a feast fit for a matriarch. Here is some of what they have to offer....

BLUEBIRD
www.bluebird-restaurant.co.uk

Lunch at Bluebird is the perfect treat; sip on the delicious cocktails in the first floor restaurant which is filled with wild flowers and herbs and enjoy their Mother's Day menu. From tuna tartare to pork belly or roasted duck breast to Cornish cod, there is something to satisfy everyone. Make sure you save space for the apple tarte tatin for two though; we hear that it is just sublime.

DAPHNE'S
www.daphnes-restaurant.co.uk

Daphne's welcomes its guests with an effortless Italian charm. Sit at the pink marble topped bar beneath the vintage Italian Murano glass chandeliers with your Mother and sip on a Daphne's Martini – a dangerously delicious Martini with an Italian twist. The seasonal menus include a selection of antipasti to whet your appetite, followed by Italian favourites from linguine with crab, chilli and parsley to chargrilled swordfish with caponata.

GRANGER & CO.
www.grangerandco.com

Tucked away down Pavilion Road, Granger & Co combines fresh takes on classics with a stylish, relaxed feel. Enjoy fusion style dishes such as soft shell crab, chorizo and kimchi fried rice with a poached egg or raw tuna and avocado poke with brown rice, cherry tomatoes, pickled cucumber and sesame. If you are craving some extra indulgence on this special day, order some dark chocolate pistachio fudge. Hot tip; try and snag a table in the secret al fresco courtyard.

THE IVY CHELSEA GARDEN
www.theivychelseagarden.com

The Ivy Chelsea Garden offers relaxed yet sophisticated dining on the endurably popular King's Road. Enjoy an indulgent lunch with grilled whole lobster dressed in garlic and parsley butter and marvel at the true showcase that is the chocolate bombe for pudding. Grab a seat on the terrace and imagine yourself sat in an English country garden - the perfect Mother's Day afternoon.

ELYSTAN STREET
www.elystanstreet.com

Hot on the scene, Elystan Street should be on your radar. The fresh and sophisticated interior is reflected on their menu making this a great spot to treat your Mother with their seasonal dishes and innovative cocktails. The roasted and shaved cauliflower with cashew cream, pickled mushrooms, toasted almonds, truffle and yeast is a special starter is just divine.

RABBIT
www.rabbit-restaurant.com

This wild food brasserie is offering a sensational eleven course menu for Mother's Day, with an added option of wine pairings. Enjoy the incredible flavours that emanate from each dish, each leaving you wondering what will arrive next; Lulworth scallops, dill and roasted garlic velouté with English caviar then sticky spatchcock quail with buttermilk English miso - just some examples to get your imagination whirling and stomach rumbling.

COTE BRASSERIE
www.cote.co.uk

Step out of Sloane Square and into this Parisian inspired brasserie, championing relaxed all day dining and serving authentic French classics made from great quality and fresh produce. If taking your mother to France is out of the equation then sit back and relish in Cote's Mother's Day champagne brunch menu. Choices of traditional full English breakfast, French breakfast, eggs benedict, eggs Florentine and sweet French toast are all served with a glass of Baron De Marck Champagne. Cote's brunch is the perfect way to begin Mother's Day celebrations.

Exclusively for You

The Boat Race

See the teams from Oxford and Cambridge battle it out at the uniquely British annual Boat Race on 24 March. We have selected some of the best vantage points along the course to watch the action unfold. From the start at Putney Bridge to the winning line at Chiswick Bridge, where will you be?

THE STAR & GARTER

www.thestarandgarter.com

Nestled on the banks of the Thames, The Star & Garter overlooks Putney Bridge where you will be able to watch the rowers warm up. Grab some of their homemade scotch eggs and sausage rolls and a drink from the extensive drinks list; not forgetting their ultimate gin selection, and take your spot outside to watch the catch the start of the action.

THE DUKE'S HEAD

www.dukesheadputney.com

If catching the rowers warm up and watching them take off down the river is your position of preference, The Duke's Head is another great option. Watch the battle of the oars commence on the large outdoor terrace and soak up the atmosphere listening to the DJ who will be on hand playing from noon throughout the day as you cheer on your favourite blue.

THE CRABTREE

www.thecrabtreew6.co.uk

On the most picturesque stretch of the Thames is The Crabtree, half way between Putney and Hammersmith. Catch the action in full swing sat on the veranda at their '3rd Crabtree Boat Race Festival'. Hoping to top last year's festival which featured three live bands and street food pop-ups, this will definitely be a must-attend boat race celebration.

THE OLD SHIP

www.oldshiphammersmith.co.uk

Claiming to have the longest view of the river, see if you can catch any drama at The Old Ship. The boathouse style of the interior is sure to get you in the spirit and the pub is known to be one of the most popular viewing points, so get down early to grab your spot at the front of the terrace.

BLUE ANCHOR

www.blueanchorlondon.com

Boasting a prime location along the riverbank, The Blue Anchor will be bustling all afternoon. Pulling out all the stops, they will be hosting a BBQ on the terrace, with an outdoor bar and live music to keep you entertained while cheering on your favourite team. In case of rain, all of the action will be shown indoors on television screens.

THE BULL'S HEAD

www.thebullsheadbarnes.com

This legendary jazz venue is conveniently located on the final stretch of the race. Although set back from the river, you will not miss out on any of the drama as everything will be televised. Do not worry though, you will still have time to run down to the riverbanks to catch the crews going by.

THE WHITE HART

www.whitehartbarnes.co.uk

Catch the last mile of the race at The White Hart which is positioned between Barnes Bridge and the finish line at Chiswick Bridge. Arrive early and grab the best spot on the outdoor to soak up the atmosphere as the drama reaches its peak. Enjoy the live music and delicious BBQ and celebrate your favourite team.

Pack up a picnic and some Pimms and head to Bishop's Park in Fulham where you can enjoy the race in the picturesque setting with multiple viewing points along the riverbank. They will also be broadcasting the race on big screens so you won't miss any of the action.
