diary this month.

Welcome

Welcome to the May issue of Cadogan VIP.

The world-famous Flower Show returns this month – and with it, our spectacular floral exhibition ‘Chelsea in Bloom’ which will see over 60 local shops, hotels and restaurants extend the Show out into the neighbourhood.

This year’s theme is ‘Summer of Love’, inspired by the Royal Wedding taking place that week. Full information on p18, please don’t forget to support local businesses and vote on your favourite for the ‘People’s Champion’ award.

Speaking of the Royal Wedding, we have also rounded up some of the best spots to enjoy it – from viewings to celebratory brunches, quintessentially British teas and musical performances, there are plenty of places to toast the happy couple in style!

Until next month,

Hugh Seaborn
Chief Executive, Cadogan

Chelsea in Bloom

This year's Chelsea in Bloom will see the neighbourhood transform into a place of floral fun, joy and romance, taking on the 'Summer of Love' theme. With over 60 shops, hotels and restaurants taking part in the biggest year yet, immerse yourself in the floral festival across Chelsea.....

CHelsea IN BLOOM – WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

The streets of Chelsea will once again come to life with stunning floral installations for 'Chelsea in Bloom'. Extending the iconic Chelsea Flower Show out into the local neighbourhood, the annual festival of floral art will see the area transformed into a place of love, joy and happiness for this year's 'Summer of Love' theme. Over 60 competitors (see overleaf) will create stunning displays made of fresh flowers and plants, inspired by the Royal Wedding and the 60s and 70s original 'summer of love' a theme rooted in the local area – from the Palace to the King's Road. Produced by Cadogan, in association with the Royal Horticultural Society (RHS), this year is set to be the biggest and most beautiful yet.

Shops, hotels & restaurants across Sloane Street, Sloane Square, King's Road, Duke of York Square and Pavilion Road are taking part – shops, hotels, restaurants including Jimmy Choo, 11 Cadogan Gardens, Harry's Dolce Vita, Monica Vinader and Nars. Each year, entrants continue to up their game with installations that are bigger and better than before and the RHS judges will decide the winning displays based on factors including their use of fresh flowers and interpretation of the 'Summer of Love' theme.

For a full map of activity, news and updates visit www.chelseainbloom.co.uk

FOR MAP & LATEST INFORMATION

Make your first point of call Sloane Square to pick up a map before swinging off on the Summer of Love trail. Visitors can also speak to an ambassador who will be happy to assist with any questions.

Why not take in the unique surrounded on our special rickshaws for the ultimate Chelsea in Bloom experience? Starting at Sloane Square, hop on, sit back and relax as you're taken around the adorned Chelsea streets to spot the incredible floral displays.
