VIP SOCIAL DIARY

The most exclusive dates for your social diary this month

Welcome

September feels like a new 'term' as fresh energy and creativity infuses the city once more.

Art and design takes centre stage this month, from the innovative London Design Festival and Start Art Fair at Saatchi to major exhibitions celebrating Azzedine Alaïa and Picasso. LAPADA Art and Antiques Fair also returns and we're delighted to have complimentary tickets for you (see p8).

As the weather becomes a little chillier, warm up with the best local Sunday roasts or enjoy the finest at home thanks to Provenance Village Butcher on Pavilion Road (with free home delivery for VIP readers).

Here is to the new season...

Until next month,

Hugh Seaborn

What's on in Chelsea

MUSIC • ART • THEATRE • EXHIBITIONS • FOOD

Start Art Fair

13 to 16 Sept - Saatchi Gallery
www.saatchigallery.com

50 emerging artists from over 25 countries showcase their work to collectors, investors and art lovers. Returning for its fifth year, START Art Fair continues to provide a vital platform for upcoming artists and galleries to establish themselves within the art community on a global stage in London.

Black Mirror

28 Sept to 13 January - Saatchi Gallery
www.saatchigallery.com

Featuring 26 contemporary artists, this exhibition highlights how satire can provide both light relief as well as unsettling commentary on the unsettled climate of modern-day politics. Media including collage, caricatures, photography and installation emphasise the importance of art and satire in dissecting power structures, questioning societal norms and visualising political unrest.

The Woods

5 Sept to 13 Oct - Royal Court Theatre
www.royalcourttheatre.com

Robert Alan Evan's latest play is the thrilling tale of a lost boy, lone woman and her wolf set in a cabin in the woods. A mysterious and mesmerising play which follows on from his 2004 play, 'A Girl in a Car with a Man'.

Professor Buchanan's Blind Wine Tasting Event

14 Sept - Chelsea Physic Garden
www.chelseaphysicgarden.co.uk

Chelsea Physic Garden is hosting an unique evening involving theatre, wine tasting and a "Call my Bluff" wine challenge. Set in Paris 1976, guests will be able to enjoy a selection of delicious canapes, a three course meal accompanied by elegant new world wines and a lecture that goes spectacularly wrong.

Introduction to Sourdough Baking Workshop

21 Sept - Bread Ahead
www.breadahead.com

This half day workshop will teach you the fundamentals of Sourdough baking. With the guidance of experts, you will create three different loaves to take away with you as well as top-tips for successful Sourdough baking at home.

Rebecca Campbell: The Collection

26 Sept to 13 Oct - Jonathon Cooper Gallery
www.jonathoncooper.co.uk

A curation of 24 new paintings by Rebecca Campbell celebrating animals and birds in all their forms; originating from Patagonia to India. Each image is inspired by her love for nature, as well as evoking the artist's warmth and sense of humour.

CHELSEA PHYSIC GARDEN
1 OCT, 2015
LES AMATEURS

Beazley Designs of the Year 2018

12 Sept to 6 Jan - Design Museum
www.designmuseum.org

A display bringing together over 60 projects from across the globe spanning six categories; architecture, digital, fashion, graphics, product and transport. See a combination of film, virtual reality, audio and objects which represent the breadth and variety of this year's designs. Each project, nominated by renowned academics, critics and designers, has been acclaimed for its outstanding contributions to design.

LAPADA ARTS & ANTIQUES FAIR

13 to 19 Sep - Berkeley Square
www.lapada.org

Since its inception in 2009, the LAPADA Art & Antiques Fair has grown to become a foremost international showcase for art and antiques, as well as one of the most prestigious events on the London social calendar. It's one of only two yearly events to grace the beautiful Berkeley Square.

100 exhibitors present work from across the art, antiques, design and decorative arts spectrum. Including jewellery, furniture, carpets, tapestries, antiquities, clocks, ceramics, silver and fine art, authenticity is assured thanks to a 70-member specialist committee pre-vetting everything on sale. With prices ranging from £500 to £500,000 and above, sought-after pieces appeal to both the established collector and first-time buyer alike. A unique stage that welcomes visitors from across the world, the fair blends eclecticism, artistry and hospitality in perfect measure.

Cadogan Concierge has complimentary tickets to both the VIP preview on 13 September, as well as general admission tickets. To reserve your ticket, please contact your Lifestyle Manager.*

London Design Festival

September sees a burst of artistic and cultural happenings across London. Here's a pick of the best...

LONDON DESIGN FESTIVAL
15 to 23 Sept - V&A Museum
www.londondesignfestival.com

The Victoria and Albert Museum is the world's leading institution of art and design, housing an extraordinary permanent collection that spans over 5,000 years of human creativity. 2018 marks ten years of the V&A acting as the hub for the London Design Festival. Marvel at some truly inspired installations by the world's most innovative designers. There will also be an extensive programme of talks, activities, tours and workshops to enjoy.

ANTHEA HAMILTON – THE SQUASH
Now on until 8 Oct - Tate Britain
www.tate.org.uk

The historic Tate Britain is currently home to The Squash, an immersive installation by 2016 Turner Prize nominee Anthea Hamilton. Notorious for her bold, often witty works which incorporate references from the worlds of art, design, fashion and popular culture, Hamilton has transformed the Duveen Galleries into an elaborate stage, combining tiles, structures, sculptures and costume into an extravagant must-see performance.

MICHAEL JACKSON – ON THE WALL
Now on until 21 Oct - National Portrait Gallery
www.npg.org.uk

The National Portrait Gallery is celebrating the culturally influential, Michael Jackson, who would have turned 60 this year. Curated by Dr Nicholas Cullinan, Director of the National Portrait Gallery, this exhibition explores how visual artists have used his image spanning several generations across all media. Be inspired by the magnificent work of over 40 of the leading names in contemporary art with extraordinary pieces sourced globally from both private and public collections, including new works made especially for the exhibition.

ALEX PRAGER: SILVER LAKE DRIVE
Now on until 14 Oct - The Photographers' Gallery
www.thephotographersgallery.org.uk

Recently opened after an impressive two-year redevelopment of a textiles warehouse, The Photographers Gallery is a chic, urban space in the heart of London's West End. Silver Lake Drive is a new exhibit, curated by Nathalie Herschdorfer, from Alex Prager. Taking place over two floors, explore this magnificent show which encompasses 40 spectacular photographs alongside her film oeuvre. Prager has included her trademark, large-scale Technicolor photographs which capture the banal and the fantastic.

AZZEDINE ALAÏA: THE COUTURIER
Now on until 7 Oct - Design Museum
www.designmuseum.org

Conceived and co-curated with Monsieur Alaïa himself, before his tragic passing in November 2017, The Couturier charts his fantastic journey from sculptor to couturier. Alaïa personally constructed each garment by hand as a tribute to the timeless beauty of the female form. Celebrate this nonconformist genius with a show interlacing stories of his life and career together with over 60 personally chosen garments, including his trademark zipped dress amongst many others. The show ranges from the rare to the iconic and spans a prolific career of nearly 40 years.

THE EY EXHIBITION: PICASSO 1932 – LOVE, FAME, TRAGEDY AT TATE MODERN
Now on until 9 Sept - Tate Modern
www.tate.org.uk

Picasso's most celebrated works have been brought together for a 'once in a lifetime' collaboration between the Tate Modern and Musée National-Picasso in Paris. The first ever solo Pablo Picasso show at the Tate Modern, it strips away the myth to expose the complicated man and artist. You will experience a private side of him as never seen before. Examine more than 100 paintings, sculptures and drawings, charged with a moving force and desire mixed with personal family photographs and rare glimpses into his private life.

Dining Out

As the days get shorter and the weather cooler, autumn is the perfect time to get cosy and enjoy the best Sunday Roasts the local area has to offer...

RABBIT
www.rabbit-restaurant.com

Located on the iconic King's Road, Rabbit captures the flavours, freshness and vibrancy of the English countryside. Be sure to enjoy a delicious and fulfilling Sunday roast here. Begin by building your own Bloody Mary, then take your pick from a variety of enticing starters such as the mushroom marmite éclair with a confit egg yolk and cornichon. For the main attraction enjoy a Sussex beef rump served with a Yorkshire pudding, red wine jus and of course, all the trimmings.

HAWKSMOOR KNIGHTSBRIDGE
www.thehawksmoor.com

Step into the 1930's at Hawksmoor Knightsbridge. The glamorous Art Deco interior and exquisite mouth-watering menu is well worth the trip. Tuck into a Sunday roast with Hawksmoor's delicious Slow-rump roast. The meat is cooked on charcoal and finished in the oven, served with duck fat roast potatoes, Yorkshire pudding, carrots, greens and lashings of bone marrow and onion gravy. Why not accompany your roast dinner with a delectable bottle of red from one of the three varied red wine menus on offer.

THE BUILDERS ARMS
www.thebuildersarmschelsea.co.uk

The Builders Arms is a gastro pub situated in the back streets of Chelsea. Perfect for a family outing, Builders Arms' Sunday menu consists of a selection of four sharing roast dinners. Serving 6-8 people, indulge in the French trimmed Norfolk pork loin. Served with all the trimmings, cinnamon, apple sauce and unlimited Yorkshire puddings. If you don't manage to gather a group of that size, don't miss out with the whole roast chicken serving 2, still complete with all the tasty trimmings and unlimited Yorkshire puddings.

THE ORANGE PUBLIC HOUSE AND HOTEL
www.theorange.co.uk

The Orange Public House and Hotel features a smart gastropub in a beautifully restored building. The Whole Castlemead Chicken is the perfect dish to share between two. Make sure you save space for the bramley apple pie served with crunchy pecans, butterscotch and vanilla ice cream.

BUMPKIN
www.bumpkinuk.com

Located in the heart of South Kensington, Bumpkin is offering country inspired cuisine alongside fine wines and premium beers. The Sunday lunch menu includes Dingley Dell Pork Belly served with Yorkshire puddings, duck fat roast potatoes, seasonal vegetables and a generous helping of red wine gravy. Wash down your roast dinner with Bumpkin's very own ale which is lovingly brewed in the heart of Kent.

THE PHENE
www.thephene.com

Head to the charming, cosy and beautifully decorated Phene, tucked away in a leafy enclave for a delectable Sunday Lunch. Enjoy the roast sirloin of beef served with garlic roast potatoes, roasted carrots and parsnips, broccoli and celeriac, carrot and pea purees. Alternatively try the Portobello and chestnut mushroom wellington served with a mouth-watering vegan gravy. Be sure to leave some room for the millionaire's chocolate cheesecake with salted caramel.
