YOUR LONDON
The capital's most exciting dates for your diary

Welcome

Happy New Year.

It is always great to hear your feedback – on the Cadogan Concierge service in general, as well as your thoughts on this magazine. Due to this, we have made a couple of changes this month. The main one is a wider-ranging section on exciting events happening across London, providing an easy edit of the capital's best shows, exhibitions, sporting fixtures and much more.

Aside from this, we have the usual Chelsea focus on what not to be missed in your local neighbourhood, from snowdrop 'Kokedama' workshops to immersive art and croissant baking courses. 'Retail therapy' looks at products to ensure the most organised start to the year and we round-up some of the best relaxing weekends 'away' that feel a million miles from everyday life – without having to board a plane. We also have two 'Exclusively for you' offers – half price annual membership joining fee at The Peak and a tempting breakfast offer at the newly refurbished Tom's Kitchen.

Please do stay in touch. We hope you enjoy this month's issue.

Heralding Spring Kokedama Making

26 Jan - Chelsea Physic Garden
www.chelseaphysicgarden.co.uk

Join the team at the Chelsea Physic Garden to create your very own Japanese oasis this New Year. Taking inspiration from the traditional Japanese bonsai, the Kokedama has become a popular craze in the gardening world with its interesting snowdrop and moss ball features.

Joanna Eden: Sondheim & Me

10 Jan - 606 Club
www.606club.co.uk

Enjoy an evening of wonderful Jazz with Joanne Eden, especially written to celebrate the works of the iconic composer Stephen Sondheim. Alongside a terrific line up of musicians, her beautiful voice and unbounded enthusiasm will make for a fantastic performance.

Hole

Until 12 Jan - Royal Court Theatre
Royalcourttheatre.com

Ellie Kendrick may be known for her role in Game of Thrones, but her debut play is a thought-provoking insight into the creation of power, tackling patriarchy and its impact on women's lives.

Ceviche Masterclass

15 Jan - Chicama
www.chicamalondon.com

Reserve your spot in this intimate and highly coveted masterclass where you'll learn to create two types of ceviche. Start your evening sipping on an ice-cold Pisco Sour before learning the tricks of the trade on ceviche preparation; concluding with a feast of Peruvian-inspired dishes.

New Year, New Art

16 to 26 Jan - Jonathan Cooper
www.jonathancooper.co.uk

Welcome in the New Year with 31 affordable artworks never before exhibited. Enjoy paintings by Michael J Austin, Tom Mabon, Rosie Sanders and Ben Henriques.

*For more local events and exhibitions,

Croissant Workshop

17, 20 & 26 Jan - Bread Ahead
www.breadahead.com

Fill your kitchens with the smell of freshly baked croissants, made in the comfort of your own home after this fantastic Croissant workshop. Learn how to enrich and 'lamine' a croissant dough in true French style during this half-day course suitable for all levels.

The Falklands 1982: Realities of a Shared War

18 Jan - National Army Museum www.nam.ac.uk

The experiences of those who fought in the Falklands War are brought to life in this conversation between Lieutenant General Sir Cedric Delves, Helen Parr and Major General Arthur Denaro. Their knowledge and expertise animate the human experiences of those facing the Argentinian forces during the 1980s.

Salon 009: We Live in an Ocean of Air

Until 20 Jan - Saatchi Gallery
www.saatchigallery.com

The latest immersive experience to arrive at the Saatchi Gallery, this virtual reality exhibition uses cutting edge technology to illuminate the invisible but fundamental connections between the human and natural worlds.

Victoria, Queen of England and Empress of India

21 Jan - Victoria & Albert Museum www.vam.ac.uk

Book your tickets to an illustrated lecture on the relationship between India and its first and only British Empress, Queen Victoria. Learn about her pivotal role, as well the way in which the country impacted her personally through a fascinating talk by Miles Taylor.
