YOUR LONDON
The capital's most exciting dates for your diary

Welcome

Welcome to the March issue of Cadogan VIP.

We are delighted to re-open the fabulous Belmond Cadogan on Sloane Street this month. With a storied past full of glamour, intrigue and at times, scandal; the hotel will be one of London's most luxurious, while celebrating Chelsea past and present. From the uniforms, significant collection of over 400 works of art and meticulous restoration of historic features including the Prince of Wales' feathers in Lilly Langtree's original dining room, botanical mosaics on the floor tiles and stained glass windows in the Tea Lounge, it truly is a unique new neighbourhood 'home from home'. See p14 for more details.

March also sees the welcome return of BADA to Duke of York Square, bringing some of the world's most exceptional arts and antiques to Chelsea. We have complimentary tickets for you, as well as offers from Natoora and Dermalogica.

Until next month,

Hugh Seaborn
Chief Executive, Cadogan

COMPLIMENTARY CORNISH SEA SALT - NATOORA

Pavilion Road
www.natoora.co.uk

Natoora are leading a food system revolution. Shaping the menus of London's most influential chefs, you can find their range of radically seasonal fruit & vegetables at their store on Pavilion Road.

This month Cadogan VIP members can receive complimentary Cornish Sea Salt when spending £5 or more on Natoora's Winter Tomato selection. Including varieties such as the Marinda from Sicily, Camone from Sardini and Raf & Black Iberico from Spain, this unique category of tomato has a flavour profile unseen at any other time of year. Ripening slowly the inside out, their crunchy, umami flesh contrasts with the bright acidity of their seeds.

T&Cs: Offer valid in a single transaction until 31st March 2019 in Natoora Pavilion Road only for Cadogan VIP members when quoting 'Cadogan VIP' or showing this page. Subject to availability on Marinda, Camone, Raf & Black Iberico tomatoes with purchases of £5 or greater.

Belmond Cadogan Hotel

After a significant renovation, the wait is finally over for the hotly anticipated re-opening of Sloane Street's Belmond Cadogan Hotel. This truly British retreat offers a luxurious, 'home-from-home' experience, celebrating its glamorous history, incredible location and future at the heart of the neighbourhood. We take a look inside...

Enter through the impressive doors on Sloane Street, welcomed by doormen in uniforms reminiscent of 1960s London (and the Mary Quant King's Road era), to be greeted by an ornate fireplace and a sweeping staircase leading up to 54 bedrooms. The sensitively restored Victorian building has over 400 pieces of original artwork lining its walls, mostly from British artists, while an eye-stopping bronze cast of 600 books honours Oscar Wilde's story, paying homage to this artistic and literary enclave of London.

Intricate detailing and playful touches are central to the interior of the hotel. The Prince of Wales' feathers are in Lillie Langtry's original dining room, 'Oscar' the peacock glitters in Swarovski crystals and the bespoke tea sets and hand-knitted tea cosies in the guests' bedrooms enhance the restoration of the original features; the beautiful stained glass windows and wood panelled walls weaving the past together with the present.

The Restaurant & Cadogan Tea Lounge

"Best of British" dining is led by Head Chef, Adam Handling. Daringly modern and innovative recipes, enhanced by the restaurant's sustainability ethos, will be served in the dining room and showcased from the open kitchen where guests can sit at the chef's tables and bar to watch the finishing touches being made to their plates. Expect theatrical dishes such as Lamb Wellington and his signature creations; Truffle Cheese Doughnuts.

Afternoon Tea will be served in the Cadogan Lounge – a wonderfully indulgent two-hour service where diners can seek sanctuary from the fast-paced city around them.

The Bar

The bar, with its timeless design, is enriched with the heritage of Chelsea and the history of the hotel. A cultural exploration of wines and spirits from across the globe fills its shelves, offering guests an extensive choice for their afternoon or evening tipple. With its own private entrance just off Pont Street and personal pictures belonging to Adam Handling placed in the bar, it has the feeling of welcoming guests into a private home.

Rooms and Suites

Boasting 54 unique bedrooms and suites, the hotel offers nothing but the most exceptional experience for its guests. Highlights include working fire-places, large bathrooms with deep freestanding roll-top baths and bespoke book and champagne holders. A partnership with local book store, John Sandoe, allows your favourite book to be ready and waiting.

For further assistance with restaurant reservations, private dining and room bookings please do not hesitate to contact your Lifestyle Manager.

Mandela: The Official Exhibition

Until 02 Jun – Leake Street Gallery
www.mandelaexhibition.com

Revolutionary. Political prisoner. World leader. Elder statesman. Symbol of the struggle against oppression. Nelson Mandela was all of these things and more.

'Nelson Mandela: The Official Exhibition' is the new major global exhibition that explores the life of the world's most famous freedom fighter and political leader. His epic story is told in a series of experiential galleries; from his rural childhood home, through years of turbulent struggle against the apartheid regime, to his eventual vindication and final years as South Africa's first democratically elected President. His journey to becoming the 'Father of South Africa', as well as a globally loved and respected figure is explored in new, personal and revealing ways.

With exclusive stories from Madiba himself, his family and those that knew him best, visitors will see Nelson Mandela in a new light.

St. Patrick’s Day Parade

15 to 17 Mar - Trafalgar Square
www.visitlondon.com

Join in the lively Irish celebrations with a number of St Patrick’s Day events and activities in London. Celebrating one of Ireland's patron saints, it may not be a public holiday in London but the day is sure to be filled with fun and spectacular festivities for all.

London Coffee Festival

28 to 31 Mar – Old Truman Brewery
www.londoncoffeefestival.com

Hit up this celebration of London's vibrant coffee culture featuring gourmet coffees, speciality teas, artisan food and demonstrations from world-class baristas. Enjoy live music and a comprehensive 'lab' seminar programme that will educate even the keenest of coffee lovers.

Spanish Calcotada Festival

Until 31 Mar – Tapas Brindisa Shoreditch
www.brindisakitchens.com

This unusual Catalan winter festival tradition, involves an abundance of red wine and chargrilled 'Calcots' - a spring onion like vegetable that has been peeled and dipped in a traditional Romesco (pepper and tomato) sauce. All consumed from a slightly risky height, it’s going to be fun and it’s going to be messy!

Post Malone

13 & 14 Mar – The O2
www.theo2.co.uk

History-making multiplatinum Dallas artist Post Malone is set to close out his first European arena tour with a headline show at The O2. The superstar has been taking over arenas throughout the continent, as he brings his chart-crushing second full-length 'Beerbongs & Bentleys' album across the pond.

George Ezra

19 & 20 Mar - The O2
www.theo2.co.uk

George Ezra continues his phenomenal ascent, with the announcement of his first ever headline arena tour. 'Staying at Tamara's' is George's second UK Number 1 album, hitting the summit in March. The album also features lead single 'Paradise,' which peaked at Number 2 in the UK singles chart and has now been certified Platinum, as well as 'Hold My Girl', 'Pretty Shining People', 'Saviour,' and 'Don't Matter Now'.

James Morrison

27 Mar – O2 Shepherds Bush Empire
www.academymusicgroup.com

James Morrison is one of the biggest success stories of his era, and now he's starting an exciting new chapter in his career with his new album 'You're Stronger Than You Know'. To celebrate its release, he'll also be embarking on his first full UK tour in three years, where he'll perform much of his new material, alongside some longstanding fan favourites.

Rumours of Fleetwood Mac Anniversary Tour

02 & 03 Apr – Cadogan Hall
www.cadoganhall.com

The world's finest tribute to Fleetwood Mac returns to the stage with its 50th anniversary tour. Book tickets to this unique opportunity for fans to rediscover the songs of this much-loved group.

Home Futures

Until 24 Mar – Design Museum
www.designmuseum.org

Explore today's home through the prism of yesterday's imagination. Are we living in the way that pioneering architects and designers throughout the 20th century predicted, or has our idea of home proved resistant to real change?

Van Gogh and Britain

27 Mar to 11 Aug – Tate Britain
www.tate.org.uk

'Van Gogh and Britain' presents the largest collection of Van Gogh's paintings in the UK for nearly a decade. Some of his most famous works will be brought together from around the world—including 'Shoes', 'Starry Night on the Rhône', 'L'Arlésienne', and two works he made while a patient at the Saint-Paul Asylum, 'At Eternity's Gate' and 'Prisoners Exercising'. They will be joined by the very rarely lent 'Sunflowers' from London's National Gallery.

The Dior Collection at Proud Central

Until 07 Apr – John Adam Street
www.proudonline.co.uk

Coinciding with the major V&A Christian Dior exhibition is a more intimate photography exhibition at Proud Central London, exploring Dior's revolutionary beginnings.

Pierre Bonnard: 'The Colour of Memory'

Until 06 May – Tate Modern
www.tate.org.uk

This is the first major exhibition of Pierre Bonnard's work in the UK since the much-loved show at Tate 20 years ago. It will allow new generations to discover Bonnard's unconventional use of colour, while surprising those who think they already know him.

Sarah Pascoe

10 Mar - The London Palladium
www.lwtheatres.co.uk

Always honest and regretting it later, Sara Pascoe opens her heart and mouth sharing adventures of the last year.

Richard III

13 to 31 Mar – Alexandra Palace Theatre
www.theatre.alexandrapalace.com

‘What do I fear? Myself?’ After decades of civil war, the nation hangs in the balance. Enter Richard, Duke of Gloucester, to change the course of history. Richard was not born to be a king, but he’s set his sights on the crown. So begins his campaign of deceit, manipulation and violence – and he’s killing it! Yet, behind his ambition lies a murderous desire to be loved. A revelatory new production directed by Headlong Associate Artist John Haidar.

Andrew Lawrence – Clean

www.leicestersquaretheatre.com

UK comedy’s foremost contrarian takes a break from all the controversy in this new show. No politics. No religion. No smut. No swearing. Just great jokes and good clean fun.

Six Nations Rugby 2019

Until 16 Mar – Across Europe
www.sixnationsrugby.com

Catch the Six Nations with our ticket and hospitality packages. For this season England's fixtures at Twickenham are;

Joshua v Miller

01 Jun - Madison Square Garden, New York
www.msg.com

Anthony Joshua will fight in the US for the first time when he defends his IBF, WBA and WBO world heavyweight titles against Jarrell Miller. Joshua will take on Miller at Madison Square Garden in the undefeated American's home city of New York. Miller, with 23 wins and a draw, has never fought for a world title. The 30-year-old will almost certainly be the heaviest opponent Joshua has faced as a professional having weighed 22st 7lbs in his last contest. Contact us for tickets and travel packages to the Big Apple!

Women's Ashes

02 to 31 Jul – Across the UK
www.ecb.co.uk

England's women will face West Indies and Australia this summer. The centrepiece of the points-based multi-format Women's Ashes series in July is a four-day Test at Taunton. There are also three one-day internationals and three Twenty20 games at Leicester, Canterbury, Chelmsford, Hove and Bristol. The three West Indies ODIs will count towards the ICC Women's Championship, which determines qualification for the 2021 World Cup in New Zealand.
