YOUR LONDON

The capital's most exciting dates for your diary

Welcome

Welcome to the May issue of Cadogan VIP.

Chelsea becomes the centre of world fame again this month, as the wonderful Flower Show returns. I am looking forward to the whole neighbourhood being transformed, as we extend the flower show on to the streets with 'Chelsea in Bloom' - set to be a blockbuster with over 80 businesses participating to interpret this year's 'Under the Sea' theme in their own unique way. I hope you have a moment to enjoy a rickshaw ride and do vote for your favourite display as 'People's Champion' (see p18).

With London Craft Week bringing us 'Artisan Chelsea' events, the National Garden Scheme throwing open some local garden squares and 'Draw Art Fair' coming to Saatchi, May is a great month to explore and discover something new.

Until next month,

Hugh Seaborn
Chief Executive, Cadogan

Chelsea in Bloom

Chelsea in Bloom is back – with this year's theme announced as 'Under the Sea', visitors will see the world-class alternative floral art show transform Chelsea's most iconic streets with breathtaking floral displays. Produced by Cadogan, in association with the Royal Horticultural Society, Chelsea in Bloom runs from the 20th-25th May and extends the Chelsea Flower Show out into the local neighbourhood.

Over 80 shops, restaurants and hotels are participating as we invite them to interpret the 'Under the Sea' theme in their own unique way, competing for the coveted award of 'Best Floral Display.'

Sloane Square will once more become home to a stunning central installation as well as act as an information point for the week with the opportunity to book a free rickshaw ride or walking tour to take in some of the highlights.

Over the years, the Chelsea in Bloom competition has become a fixture in the London summer cultural calendar, attracting audiences from around the globe with this year set to be no different. For the first time, Cadogan is working alongside charity partner Plastic Oceans UK, whose vision is to end plastic pollution. For those wishing to take part, a charity point will be in situ on Sloane Sqaure, with an interactive installation to raise funds and awareness.

Look out for huge floral installations across Duke of York Square, King’s Road, Sloane Street, Pavilion Road and Sloane Square; as well as voting for the ‘People’s Champion’ award. To vote and for further information, please visit www.chelseainbloom.co.uk.
