Welcome

Welcome to the June issue of Cadogan VIP.

The start of summer is finally here, bringing with it a full calendar of sporting and cultural events.

Locally, we look forward to the return of the Summer Fête (with many exciting partners such as Goodwood and Chelsea FC Foundation participating), The Kensington + Chelsea Art Weekend will see a jam-packed schedule of events and Masterpiece London will once more showcase the world's finest art, design, furniture and jewellery exhibitors at the Royal Hospital - I hope you enjoy complimentary entry to the Fair (p10 for further details).

Until next month,

Hugh Seaborn
Chief Executive, Cadogan

Open Garden Squares Weekend

08 to 09 Jun - Cadogan Place North and South
www.opensquares.org

For one very special weekend in June, some of London's hidden green spaces are opened up to the public for enjoyment and discovery as part of the Open Garden Squares Weekend. Cadogan Place North and South will be joining the weekend - allowing visitors to explore the history and enjoy delicious refreshments from The Belmond Cadogan Hotel and Pretty Little Tea Company, whilst listening to a wonderful live jazz trio.

Open from 10am – 5pm, a portion of each ticket sale is returned to the community and volunteer run gardens. To book, please visit: www.opensquares.org

James Gillick: Still Lives 2019

Now until 29 Jun - Jonathan Cooper Gallery
www.jonathancooper.co.uk

An exhibition of 19 new still life paintings by contemporary artist, James Gillick. With his artisanal attention to detail and intimacy in scale, he finds and records the beauty in the simplicity of everyday life.

Christopher Thompson

Now until 07 Jul - Pontone Gallery
Pontonegallery.art

A selection of new works by British artist Christopher Thompson. Exploring the urban portrait, he paints solitary subjects in austere architectural settings. Whilst his classical painting methods and technically accomplished handling of light and shade add drama and intensity to the images.

Beyond the Road

12 to 24 Jun - Saatchi Gallery
www.saatchigallery.com

An immersive exhibition merging visual art, music and film. Leave behind the everyday world and lose yourself in this multi-sensory world led by sound, interspersed with thought-provoking works from contemporary artists and filmmakers.

The Pink Singers

15 June - Cadogan Hall
www.cadoganhall.com

Join Europe's longest LGBT+ choir as they celebrate the meaning of 'Diva'. Fantastic arrangements, gorgeous harmonies and a touch of glitter to ensure that this is an evening not to be missed.

Fevertree Championships at Bluebird

17 to 23 Jun - Bluebird www.bluebird-restaurant.co.uk

Partnering with Fever Tree to create the ultimate summer terrace, sip on a limited edition botanical cocktail and spend your days catching all the action from the Fever Tree Championships whilst taking advantage of the full sized adult swing and table tennis games.

Fashion and Fiction: Elif Shafak with Rosie Goldsmith

21 June – The V&A
www.vam.ac.uk

A wonderful opportunity to hear British-Turkish novelist and activist Elif Shafak with Rosie Goldsmith, sharing her view of women, clothing, culture and identity in her own life as well as her acclaimed novels. This special event will question to what extent politics, geography and religious influences affect the identity of women.

Secret Gardener: Kirsty Wark in Conversation with James Alexander-Sinclair

25 June - Chelsea Physic Garden
www.chelseaphysicgarden.co.uk

Novelist, broadcaster and Newsnight presenter Kirsty Wark joins horticulturist James Alexander-Sinclair to discuss her passion for plants, childhood gardening memories and how her passion for the outdoors inspired her latest novel, The House by the Loch.

the end of history...

27 Jun to 10 Aug - Royal Court Theatre
www.royalcourttheatre.com

Created by the duo between Harry Potter and The Cursed Child this production explores domestic socialism; as this family drama looks at the legacy left behind from the women who protested in 1997.

Live at Chelsea

13 to 16 Jun - Royal Hospital Chelsea
Liveatchelsea.com

The open air concert series set within the iconic grounds of the Royal Hospital returns for its third year. Headlining this year will be iconic American rock band Toto, The Gipsy Kings and Tom Jones with a proportion of the proceeds being donated towards the care of the Chelsea Pensioners.

Your London

We take a look at some of the capital's most exciting dates for your diary.

We can access tickets for a range of occasions including many sold out or unobtainable events. Please contact us for further details covering the world of theatre, sport, exhibitions, comedy, film premieres and concerts...

The Luna Open Air Cinema 2019

Now until 26 Sep – Across London
www.thelunacinema.com

Sneak into a gorgeous London palace or park after hours and watch a movie under the stars! Luna's most popular venues include Kenwood House on Hampstead Heath and Regent's Park Open Air Theatre, with the likes of Brockwell Lido and Victoria Embankment Gardens also joining in on the fun. Be sure to pack a picnic – and take advantage of booking blankets and backrests, ready for collection when you arrive.

Roof Fest at John Lewis

Now until 28 Oct – John Lewis Oxford Street
www.johnlewis.com

A festival themed summer rooftop with live entertainment, music, comedy, street food, cocktails and much more. Set high above the hustle and bustle of Oxford Street, one of the largest rooftops in London has undergone a festival makeover complete with bookable boho and flower dens, a Caravan stage, and a variety of cocktails and street food. Throughout the summer season, be entertained with headline performances from DJs, artists and acoustic musicians alongside Filipino food from Bong Bongs Manila Kanteen, formerly known as BBQ Dreamz, and refreshing cocktails from Background Bars.

Colour Palace

12 Jun to 22 Sep – Dulwich Pavilion
www.dulwichpicturegallery.org.uk

This summer, the Dulwich Pavilion returns with The Colour Palace. Free and open to the public, The Colour Palace is a fusion of West African and European influences, inspired by the buzz of fabric markets in Lagos, Nigeria, and incorporating symmetry, curves and right-angles – all elements present in Sir John Soane's iconic 1811 design of the Gallery.

Summer Pleasure Garden at The Royal Academy

21 Jul – Royal Academy of Arts
www.royalacademy.org.uk

For a midsummer instalment, Burlington House takes a turn towards the fantastical. This Saturday-night late event will hark back to the days of Hanoverian London, when Georgian pleasure gardens were all the rage setting the scene for magical spaces of art, music and entertainment. Filled with musical concerts and masquerades among tree-lined avenues dotted with glowing lanterns; the 2019 instalment of the Summer Pleasure Garden, will see the RA deliver their very own twenty-first-century take on these dreamish soirees of yesteryear.

Capital Radio Summertime Ball

08 Jun – Wembley Stadium
www.wembleystadium.com

Calvin Harris has just announced he will be joining the line-up, to make everyone Bounce, so be sure not to miss Capital FM's huge Summertime Ball! Other acts include Mark Ronson, 5 Seconds Of Summer, Ellie Goulding, Khalid, Jonas Brothers, Halsey, Maroon 5, Jess Glynne, Rita Ora, Jax Jones, Anne Marie....and many more!

Love Supreme Jazz Festival

05 to 07 Jul – Glynde Place
www.lovesupremefestival.com

Gladys Knight, Chick Corea, Jamie Cullum, Snarky Pupp, Jimmy Cliff and many more acts is what you can expect as this year's Love Supreme Jazz Festival. Regarded as one of Europe's most prestigious jazz festivals, bringing a touch of the European scene to the UK and jazzing it up with the country's famed camping culture.

Rick Astley

14 Jul – Kew The Music Royal Botanic Gardens
www.kewthemusic.org

The much-loved multi-million selling 80s icon, known for his upbeat dancing, hook-laden pop songs and the odd cheeky lyrical reference, is set to headline Kew The Music and capture our hearts with viral hits like 'Never Gonna Give You Up' and 'She Makes Me' this summer.

Phyllida Barlow: Cul De Sac

Now until 10 Jun – Royal Academy of Arts
www.royalacademy.org.uk

Housed across three rooms, these new sculptures have one thing in common: they're massive! Jumbo-sized constructions that loom over humans the same way chunks of ancient monuments in the British Museum reduce everyone who walks past them to Borrower-size. Unlike the flawless stonemasonry and marble of the RA's Burlington House, Barlow creates her art from solid concrete blocks, gnarled old wood, gloomy grey metal and bumpy bits of gauze slathered in paint.

Lee Krasner: Living Colour

Now until 01 Sep – Barbican Centre
www.barbican.org.uk

As the title suggests, one reason for buying a ticket is to check out Krasner's vivid, large-scale canvases that explode in fireworks of colour. But that's not all as you'll also be able to see her superb charcoal drawings and some early self-portraits.

Leonardo da Vinci: A Life in Drawing

Now until 13 Oct – The Queen's Gallery
www.rct.uk

Marking the 500th anniversary of the death of Leonardo da Vinci, this exhibition will bring together more than 200 of the Renaissance master's greatest drawings in the Royal Collection, forming the largest exhibition of his work in over 65 years. With the drawings having been grouped together since the artist's death in 1519, the collection will provide an unparalleled insight into the workings of Leonardo's mind and reflect the full range of his interests, including painting, sculpture, architecture, anatomy, engineering, cartography, geology and botany.

The Lehman Trilogy

Now until to 03 Aug – Piccadilly Theatre
www.thepiccadillytheatre.com

The National Theatre's smash-hit production of The Lehman Trilogy returns to London for a strictly limited season. Told in three parts on a single evening, The Lehman Trilogy is a story of a family and a company that changed the world. On a cold September morning in 1844 a young man from Bavaria stands on a New York dockside, dreaming of a new life in the new world. Joined by his two brothers an American epic begins as 163 years later, the firm they establish – Lehman Brothers – spectacularly collapses in bankruptcy and triggers the largest financial crisis in history.

The Secret Diary of Adrian Mole

15 Jun to 12 Oct – Ambassadors Theatre
www.adrianmolethemusical.com

This joyous new musical adaptation of Sue Townsend's best-selling book The Secret Diary of Adrian Mole Aged 13 ¾ -The Musical arrives in London for a strictly limited season! A timeless tale of teenage angst, family struggles and unrequited love, told through the eyes of tortured poet and misunderstood intellectual Adrian Mole. One of the most enduring comedy characters of all time, he is the hapless, hilarious, spotty teenager who captured the zeitgeist of 1980s Britain.

Ken Jeong – For One Night Only

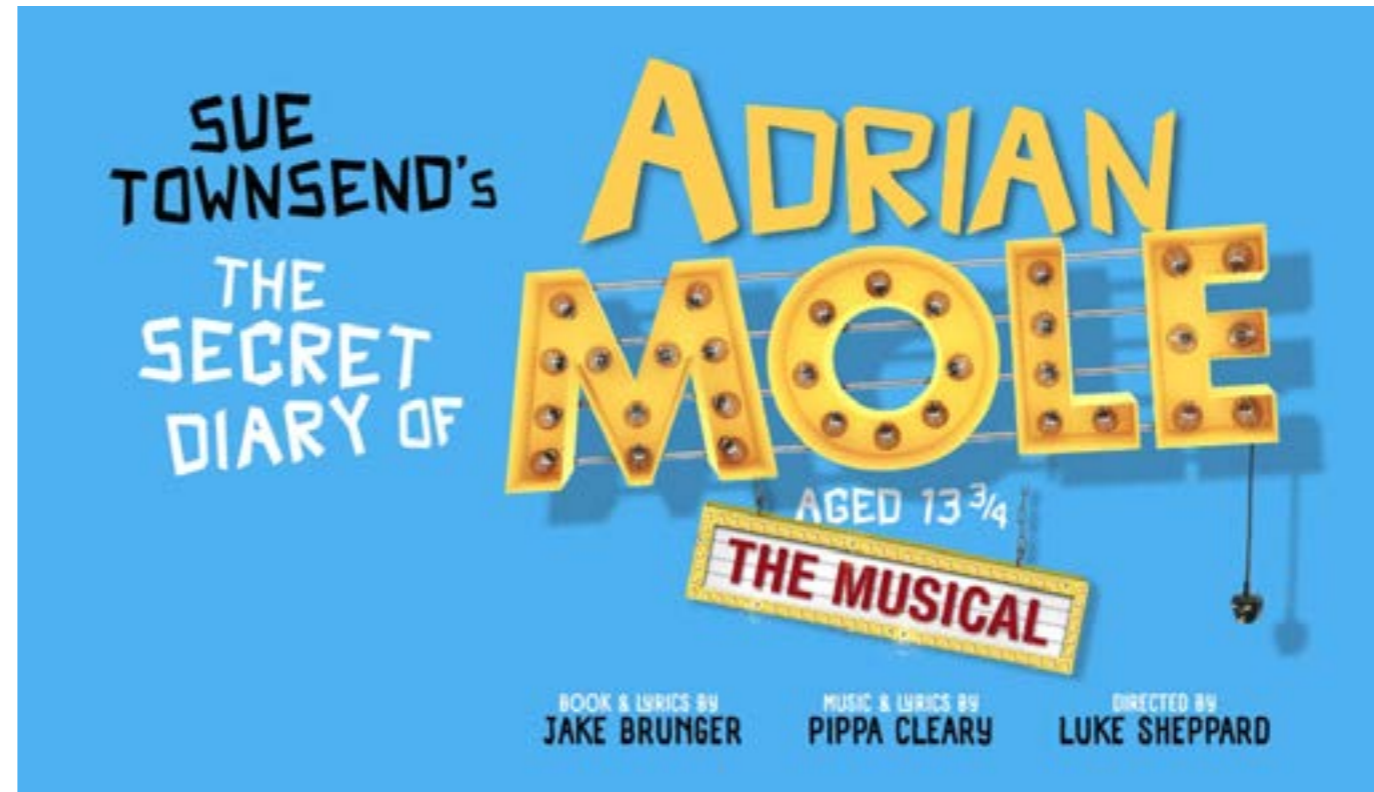

23 Jun – Adelphi Theatre
www.lwtheatres.co.uk

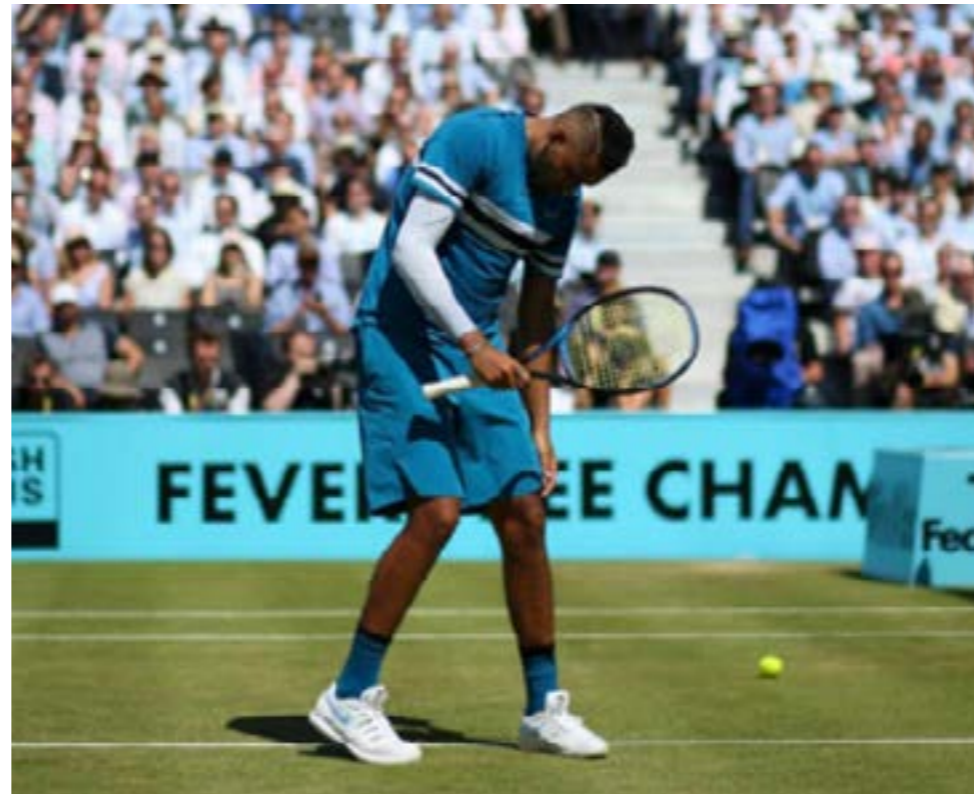

Following the release of his first Netflix comedy special earlier this year 'You Complete Me, Ho', Ken Jeong is performing live for one night only! Showcasing his scene-stealing abilities and establishing him as not only one of today's top comedians, but actor, producer and writer too.

Giggle Aid

07 Jul – Indigo at The O2
www.theo2.co.uk

Get your tickets to Giggle Aid at Indigo at The O2 – a comedy night filled with chuckles, in support of the British Red Cross. Some of the UK's biggest names in live comedy will be joined by the freshest rising stars to give you and your friends the best night out.

Canoe Slalom World Cup 2019

14 to 16 Jun – Lee Valley White Water Centre
www.canoeicf.com

The 2019 ICF Canoe Slalom World Cup London is a fun day out for all the family, with the chance to try paddle sporting, alongside supporting the British team as they take on the world's best paddlers in preparations for the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games.

Queens – The Fever Tree Championship

17 to 23 Jun – Queens Club
www.lta.org.uk

The hotly anticipated Fever-Tree Championships, hosted at The Queen's Club, attracts the world's best male tennis players, and is a thrilling, action packed week for fans. Contact your Lifestyle Manager for further information regarding tickets.

The Boston Red Sox V The New York Yankees

29 to 30 Jun – The London Stadium
www.london-stadium.com

Major League Baseball is coming to the UK for the first time ever, with the Boston Red Sox playing the New York Yankees in one of the greatest rivalries in American sport history. Contact your Lifestyle Manager for ticket only and official hospitality packages.
