Tutankhamun: Treasures of the Golden Pharaoh

02 Nov to 03 May '20 - Saatchi Gallery
www.saatchigallery.com

In celebration of the centenary of the discovery that captured the world, book your tickets to the largest collection of King Tutankhamun's treasures to ever travel. Explore the life of King Tutankhamun through more than 150 authentic artefacts; more than 60 of which are leaving Egypt for the very first time. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity to experience the wonder and the mystery of the boy king before the objects return to Egypt forever. Set to sell-out, booking tickets to the exhibition, produced by the Egyptian Ministry of Antiquities and IMG is recommended.

Christmas Lights Switch On

23 Nov - Across Chelsea
www.inchelsea.co.uk

The Chelsea Christmas Lights Switch on returns again this year, with magical displays across Sloane Square and Sloane Street, Duke of York Square, Pavilion Road – and for the first time, new lights on the King's Road celebrating its regal heritage. From 2pm onwards enjoy an unmissable array of entertainment across the neighbourhood, including carol singers and performers – perfect for the entire family. At 5pm, Father Christmas and his 'special helper', will turn on the Christmas Lights from the stage on Sloane Square, lighting up the area and marking the start of the Christmas season!

Chelsea's Christmas Grotto

2019 is set to be the most magical Christmas yet, as London's most interactive Grotto arrives in Chelsea, opening on the picturesque Pavilion Road this November!

The Chelsea Christmas Grotto will offer an hour-long winter wonderland experience like no other, in collaboration with famed children's entertainers, Sharky & George, where your little one will be transported to the North Pole to meet Father Christmas and his elves.

Children will enjoy 30 minutes of classic Sharky & George games before entering Father Christmas' workshop. Father Christmas will be decked in luxurious red velvet and settled in front of the fire to read a festive story before each child's one-on-one. The little ones will be dazzled with his knowledge of their naughty and nice antics over the year before giving them a traditional gift from under the tree. Festive crafts will then be on offer, giving children the opportunity to try their hand at gingerbread biscuit or bauble decorating.

Opening as Chelsea lights up for Christmas on 23 November, this truly magical experience will run until 23 December – spaces are likely to fill up fast, so book your spot early to avoid disappointment.

Unlike traditional Christmas grottos, this event will be packed full of mischief and mayhem and is also available for exclusive hire sessions, so grab a group of friends and get in touch to book.

For the under-twos, the grotto will also offer a 'My First Grotto' session, and exclusive pre-school sessions for those four and under. With each ticket sale comes the optional donation of £1 which will go towards the Kensington & Chelsea Foundation, an independent charity dedicated to bringing together people across the Borough to overcome hardship and exclusion.

Tickets are £27.50 per child, to book please visit: www.sharkyandgeorge.com

Penguin Skate Club

02 Nov to 04 Jan '20 - National History Museum
www.nhm.ac.uk

Tiny Troopers: Poppies

11 Nov - National Army Museum
www.nam.ac.uk

Bring your little ones to explore the theme of poppies and Remembrance. Sing, play and create with these fun and interactive sessions, perfect for under-5s.

King of the World: Philip Mansel on Louis XIV

12 Nov - John Sandoe Books
www.johnsandoe.com

Book tickets to join Philip Mansel, renowned historian of France and the Levant, as he discusses his magnificent reappraisal of the Sun King, King of the World.

Missoni: The Great Italian Fashion

13 Nov - V&A
www.vam.ac.uk

Join Rosita, Angela and Luca Missoni for a look at the history of the innovative Italian fashion house. This exclusive evening will give an unmissable insight into the brand which has iconic status across the world and marks the release of the most-comprehensive Missoni book published to date.

Watercolour Christmas Cards with Chelsea School of Botanical Art

18 Nov - Chelsea Physic Garden
www.chelseaphysicgarden.co.uk

Mary Ellen Taylor joins from the Chelsea School of Botanical Art for a festive introduction to botanical painting. Add a personal touch to your Christmas cards this year as you learn how to paint your own festive designs showcasing winter delights such as holly and mistletoe.

The New Materialists

19 Nov - Design Museum
www.designmuseum.org

Book your place to hear four designers and expert panellists as they debate how and why social impact should be an integral focus in today's business challenges.

The Cuba Collection

23 Nov to 07 Dec - 508 Gallery
www.508kingsroad.com

A carefully curated selection of works by the very best of emerging Cuban artists, showcasing their works for the very first time in the UK. 20 pieces by Yuniel Delgado, Serlian Barreto, Osy Milan, Jose Capaz and Dayron Gallardo will demonstrate the colourful and flourishing art scene of Cuba.

Midnight Movie

27 Nov to 21 Dec - Royal Court Theatre
www.royalcourttheatre.com

Experimental playwright, Eve Leigh's most recent production is a whirlwind of turbulent characters with dramatic and emotionally-wrought stories all linked via the web. In a new format, a live online audience will also participate throughout the performance.

Chelsea's Coziest Pubs

Whether you're after some seriously good pub grub or a quick pint with a pal, winter calls for settling into the corner of your favourite local. Head off the beaten track in Chelsea to find the best of old and new; squishy wingbacks, unctuous scotch eggs, delicious Sunday lunch and even an Aga.

The Surprise

6 Christchurch Terrace

Arguably, one of the best surprises in Chelsea. Find tankards for every house on the street, and if you're lucky enough to be a local, call out your house number to have it filled. Mismatched furniture and quirky art remind you that are you still in bohemian Chelsea whilst the sharing boards and excellent wine list, suitable to challenge any sommelier, will ensure that your visit is delicious.

The Builders Arms

13 Britten Street

The beating heart of Chelsea's drinking scene since 1999 has recently undergone a stylish refurb. Dog friendly, local friendly and visitor friendly, the relaxed atmosphere is perfect for a catch-up with friends or a leisurely Sunday roast. Just after a light bar snack? Try the 'Truffle and Parmesan Fries' or 'Rose Petal Hummus, Pistachio, Pomegranate and Pitta' for something a little more sophisticated. Rather a good ol' fashioned sausage roll? They sell those too.

The Admiral Codrington

17 Mossop Street

Or 'The Cod' as it's known to locals. With a wood-panelled interior and well-heated courtyard, The Admiral Cod describes itself as part cosy traditional pub, part elegant restaurant meaning there is something for everyone and every occasion. The Bloody Mary's and Espresso Martini's come highly recommended, making this is an excellent choice should you require hair of the dog (having spent the night before working through our checklist)!

The Hunters Moon

86 Fulham Road

Slightly further afield, but worth a visit to Fulham is where you will find The Hunters Moon. Cosy nooks and comfy wingback armchairs complement the oak flooring and textured floors which add an opulence to the traditional yet stylish pub. Homely touches, including an open fireplace and an original Aga, will have you coming back time, and time again as you sample homemade bar snacks and a daily-changing European menu. We hear the Slow Roast Suckling Pork Belly and Apple Tarte Fine is pretty special.
