COMPLIMENTARY TICKETS TO OPEN ART FAIR

18 to 24 Mar, Duke of York Square
www.theopenartfair.com

Featuring thousands of objects from an eclectic interdisciplinary mix of dealers, The Open Art Fair offers a celebration of excellence in a surprising multiplicity of fields, with works on display stretching from ancient antiquity to the contemporary. Surprising and delighting any collector or enthusiast with what they might find, as many dealers present specialist and curated exhibitions as the fair continues to be scrupulously vetted by the British Antique Dealers' Association (BADA).

As a valued member of Cadogan VIP, we are delighted to offer you complimentary tickets to the fair taking place from 18 to 24 March 2020.

Ts&Cs: Tickets are valid from 18 to 24 March and permit entry to the fair across all days during the public opening hours, except the Charity Night. To book please visit: www.theopenartfair.com and enter code 'Cadogan2020' when prompted.

Mother's Day

Mother's Day often creeps up on us, suddenly appearing in our diaries and we find ourselves the Saturday before dashing to the florist for any remaining flowers and a card. In France, they celebrate with a floral shaped cake; in Mexico with a traditional Mothers' Day song sung in church, in Japan with a national art competition with the winning images displayed across the country and in Thailand, whenever the Queen celebrates her birthday. Each place and each family celebrate in their own special way so to help, we have rounded up the very best ways to treat our mothers in Chelsea on Sunday, 22 March.

Massage at Urban Retreat

With a beauty bible of every treatment you could dream of, give her the opportunity to escape the high-speed pace of motherhood. Book her a Therapeutic Massage or Customised Facial where the therapist can focus on the key areas of concern and work their magic. Therapeutic Massage £90, Customised Facial from £70

Breakfast at Vardo and the King Tutankhamun Exhibition

9 Duke of York Square
www.vardorestaurant.co.uk
Saatchi Gallery, Duke of York Square
www.saatchigallery.com

For the Mum who wants to get-up and go, book tickets to Tutankhamun: Treasure's of the Golden Pharaoh at Saatchi Galley for an incredibly special and exclusive culture hit; showcasing the treasures of King Tutankhamun's tomb for a limited period before returning to Egypt for the very last time. Make the morning even more special, start the day with brunch at Vardo; for something fresh, opt for the 'blackberry and banana smoothie bowl, toasted buckwheat, mixed seeds and goats milk kefir' but for more of a treat, the 'cornbread French toast, avocado, rocket and bacon' will result in smiles all round.

Afternoon Tea at the Belmond Cadogan Hotel

75 Sloane Street
www.belmond.com

Nothing says 'thank you' better than tiers of delicious sandwiches, quintessentially British scones and the flakiest pastries. Spend quality time together and indulge in Afternoon Tea at Cadogan's by Adam Handling. Enjoy a selection of traditional sandwiches, followed by freshly baked scones – cream then jam or vice versa? - and sweet and savoury pastries including 'chicken lattice with caramelised shallot' and 'white chocolate and raspberry mouse'. Culinary history and nostalgia sit perfectly with Adam Handling's culinary technique and flair in this wonderful way to enjoy Mother's Day. £55pp or enjoy with free flowing Champagne for an additional £40pp.

Breakfast in Bed

Pavilion Road
www.pavilionroad.co.uk

Treat her to a lie-in and a delicious breakfast in bed. Whip up a delicious home-cooked feast with all beautiful ingredients found on our much-loved artisan street, Pavilion Road. Fill the house with smells of freshly baked bread from Bread Ahead, and if she has a sweet tooth, grab one of their doughnuts. With avocado from Natoora, bacon from Provenance Village Butchers and eggs from the Chelsea General Store, you've then got yourself a feast. We even suggest you do the washing up too.

Boden Store Event

20 - 23 Duke of York Square
www.boden.co.uk

If your Mum is somewhat of a fashionista, book the pair of you places at the wardrobe-bespokifying workshops taking place on Saturday, 7 March. (10-11am). Pick up some beautiful, yet simple, embroidery techniques from artist and illustrator Lisa Stickley, then get creative – with a jersey top or denim piece that you've brought along, or a complimentary Boden tee – and design your complete original. For £10pp, create Mum-and-me designs and receive an exclusive Boden gift. Booking is essential, limited space available.

Brittany Howard

10 Mar – The O2 Forum Kentish Town
www.academymusicgroup.com

Alabama Shakes front woman, Brittany Howard, released her debut solo album, Jamie, to broad critical acclaim earlier this year. Now having recently been nominated for two Grammy awards, one for Best Rock Performance and the other for Best Rock Song for History Repeats her only UK tour date is not to be missed.

Elvis Costello and The Imposters

13 Mar – Eventim Apollo
www.eventim.co.uk

With four albums in the Rolling Stone ‘500 Greatest Albums of all Time’ list, Elvis Costello is a true song-writing legend. Sharing the stage will be The Waterboys who, throughout their near 35-year career, have cemented themselves as one of the most loved bands in the UK as well as Nick Lowe who famously produced Elvis Costello’s first five albums and has hits in his own right including the iconic ‘Cruel To Be Kind’.

Goldfrapp

29 Mar – Royal Festival Hall
www.southbankcentre.co.uk

Alison Goldfrapp and Will Gregory formed Goldfrapp in 1999 and released their Mercury Prize nominated album in 2000. Since that time, they have released a further five studio albums and scored a string of hits including ‘Strict Machine’, ‘Ooh La La’, ‘Lovely Head’ and ‘A&E’. Nominated for several Grammy, Brit Awards and winner of an Ivor Novello for ‘Strict Machine’ Goldfrapp are a must see as the multi-platinum selling band are set to mark the 20th anniversary of Felt Mountain.

Picasso and Paper

Now until 13 Apr – Royal Academy of Arts
www.royalacademy.org.uk

Picasso didn't just draw on paper – he tore it, burnt it, and made it three-dimensional. From studies for 'Guernica' to 4.8 metre-wide collages, this exhibition brings together more than 3300 works on paper spanning the artist's 80-year career.

The Clash: London Calling

Now until 19 Apr – The Museum of London
www.museumoflondon.org.uk

To honour this truly London anniversary, the Museum of London will showcase personal objects, images, music and memories from the band's history – including some never before seen items. Go behind the scenes on the making of The Clash's ground-breaking London Calling - an album that rocked the music scene – serving as an anthem for London, Londoners and music lovers globally.

Andy Warhol

12 Mar to 06 Sep – Tate Modern
www.tate.org.uk

This major retrospective is the first Warhol exhibition at Tate Modern for almost 20 years. As well as his iconic pop images of Marilyn Monroe, Coca-Cola and Campbell's soup cans, it includes works never seen before in the UK. Twenty-five works from his Ladies and Gentleman series – portraits of black and Latinx drag queens and trans women – are shown for the first time in 30 years. Visitors can also play with his floating Silver Clouds and experience the psychedelic multimedia environment of the Exploding Plastic Inevitable.

The Prince of Egypt

Now until 12 Sep – The Dominion Theatre
www.nederland.co.uk

Experience the epic emotion and soaring music of this extraordinary new musical from three-time Academy Award-winner Stephen Schwartz (Wicked and Godspell). Journey through the wonders of Ancient Egypt as two young men, raised together as brothers in a kingdom of privilege, find themselves suddenly divided by a secret past. One must rule as Pharaoh whilst the other must rise up and free his true people; both face a destiny that will change history forever.

The Seagull

11 Mar to 30 May – Playhouse Theatre
www.theplayhousetheatre.co.uk

Emilia Clarke (Game of Thrones) makes her West End debut as Nina in Anya Reiss’ unique modernisation of Anton Chekov’s The Seagull, with direction by Jamie Lloyd. Witness a young woman desperate for fame and a way out; a young man pining after the woman of his dreams; a successful writer longing for a sense of achievement and an actress wanting to fight the changing of times. In an isolated home in the countryside where dreams are in tatters, hopes dashed, hearts broken and there is nowhere left to turn, the only option they have is to turn to each other.

Romesh Ranganathan – The Cynics Mixtape

27 Mar – Eventim Apollo
www.eventim.co.uk

The Cynics Mixtape sees Romesh put showbiz aside to deliver a carefully curated selection of all things he has found unacceptable since his last tour – including why trying to save the environment is a scam and why none of us are truly free...

4000 Miles Starring Eileen Atkins

11 Apr to 23 May – The Old Vic
www.oldvictheatre.com

The start of summer was the start of a journey that 21-year-old Leo would never forget, as he set off from the West Coast to cycle across the United States with his best friend. A trip that was started together but finished alone; as after weeks totally off grid Leo’s 91-year-old grandma, Vera, is surprised to find her grandson on the stoop of her West Village apartment with no warning in the middle of the night. What could have possible led to this moment?
