Chelsea In Bloom

20 - 25 September, Across Chelsea

20 – 25 SEPTEMBER 2021
EXTRAORDINARY VOYAGES

Chelsea in Bloom is back! Much-missed after a year away, London's largest free flower festival returns with this year's theme 'Extraordinary Voyages'.

Transforming Chelsea's most iconic streets with breath-taking floral displays, the world-class alternative floral art show will see creations inspired by wanderlust, the golden age of travel and Phileas Fogg's '80 days around the world'. Produced by Cadogan, in association with the Royal Horticultural Society, Chelsea in Bloom extends the Chelsea Flower Show into the local neighbourhood, this year running from 20-25 September.

Over 70 shops, restaurants, hotels and local businesses will take part, creating their own beautiful interpretations of the theme 'Extraordinary Voyages', competing for the coveted award of 'Best Floral Display'.

Sloane Square will once more welcome a stunning central installation, proudly positioned amongst the pop-up bars of the Summer Terrace – the perfect place to soak up the atmosphere over a cocktail. It will also act as the information point for the week with the opportunity to book a complimentary rickshaw ride or walking tour to take in some of the highlights.

Look out for the huge floral installations across Duke of York Square, King's Road, Sloane Street, Pavilion Road and Sloane Square to be transported on a truly inspiring floral adventure. Make sure you vote for your favourite display for this year's 'People's Champion' award.

Chelsea History Festival

chelseahistoryfestival.com

With Chelsea's rich history and culture, we're delighted to welcome the return of the third annual Chelsea History Festival. A brilliantly eclectic programme of world-class speakers, historians and experts returns this September, curated by three iconic destinations on our doorstep; The National Army Museum, Royal Hospital Chelsea and the Chelsea Physic Garden.

From the launch seeing bestselling author and historian Julie Summers in conversation with former British Vogue editor-in-chief, Alexandra Shulman, discussing the groundbreaking work of her wartime predecessor Audrey Withers to Jeremy Paxman exploring the impact of coal in British History, visitors can expect a unique and brilliant series of events.
