YOUR LONDON

The Capital's most exciting dates for your diary

Join us from 11am to 6pm for the King's Road
Jubilee Street Party. Pedestrianised from Sloane Square to Cheltenham Terrace, expect a day of merriment in celebration of The Queen's extraordinary reign with a host of activity for all to enjoy.

A special Jubilee edition of the Fine Food Market will take place on the green opposite Saatchi, collaborating with the Royal Commonwealth Society offering delicious food representative of flavours from constituent nations. Bars from Partridges, the King's Road institution, The Cadogan Arms, and a Moet & Chandon terrace, providing plenty of opportunities for celebratory toasts, and visitors can picnic on the grass, enjoying one of our regal deckchairs or special banqueting tables fit for royalty!

Exciting showcases will take place throughout the don't miss a moment of this historic occase day, from street art with the Saatchi Gallery, where 1-5.30pm - both events are free to attend.

you can contribute to a live Jubilee memento, Gruffalo storytelling with Peter Jones and the Royal Hospital with the Chelsea Pensioners enacting a special 'pace sticking' display. Plus, expect brass bands, steel bands, crown and sword making workshops, face painting, circus performances and dance classes throughout the day - and of course, plenty of music to dance, jive and swing to!

And, don't miss a live-screening of the Pageant at Duke of York Square. Grab a picnic blanket and don't miss a moment of this historic occasion from 1-5.30pm - both events are free to attend.
