A Chelsea New Year

As 2022 draws to close, here's what your favourite hotels and restaurants across the neighbourhood have planned for New Year's Eve. Welcome in 2023 with champagne, delicious food and live entertainment, and whether you are after wild revelry or something a little more intimate, you will be spoilt for choice.

The Ivy Chelsea Garden

195-7 King's Road, London SW3 5EQ
ivychelseagarden.com

A festive flourish on sumptuous dishes and indulgent cocktails to bring good cheer this New Year's Eve. With champagne on arrival and three delicious courses featuring much-loved classics including blackened cod fillet and a chocolate bombe, you can ensure a spectacular start to 2023. And the festive cocktail menu is not to be missed, with flavours set to transport you to warmer climes - all we suggest is that you have mistletoe at the ready.

No. Fifty Cheyne

50 Cheyne Walk, London SW3 5LR
fiftycheyne.com

Start your celebrations sipping on champagne and for those enjoying the later sitting, this will be accompanied by a special caviar amuse bouche, setting the tone for the night that lies ahead. With sparkling views over the River Thames, sit fireside with your loved ones whilst you are wined and dined by their expert team, before final carriages at 12.30. Each of the two sittings are especially indulgent for the occasion, but the second includes a larger menu of five spectacular courses.

The Cadogan Arms

298 King's Road, London SW3 5UG
thecadoganarms.london

Dinner or dancing? Try both. Celebrate the New Year with a four course dinner with welcome cocktail and midnight bubbles and dance the night away with a DJ 'til late by the bar at The Cadogan Arms. Menu highlights, of course coming with vegan alternatives, include a selection of snacks - the cheese truffle toast, hello – and the most indulgent of beef wellingtons, complete with clotted cream mash.

The Surprise

6 Christchurch Terrace, London SW3 4AJ
insert website

The Surprise, dubbed one of London's cosiest pubs by The Gentleman's Journal, are offering a finale to 2022 with a menu of four courses; with Taittinger champagne and Caviar blinis on arrival and petit fours and coffee to finish. From hand-dived Orkney scallops to fillet of beef wellington, desserts and cheeses follow, this is set to be a truly spoiling affair, with ingredients sourced from the finest suppliers in the South of England. The bar will also be open late for those toasting at midnight and carrying on the party into the early hours.

The LaLee

75 Sloane Street, London SW1X 9SG
thelalee.co.uk

For a truly enchanting evening, welcome in the New Year with a soiree at The LaLee. Choose between two sittings – one for the early birds and the other for night owls – and enjoy five or six courses, Rathfinny fizz and entertainment from the Ivy Knights, jazz extraordinaires, at the bar. With its star-studded history and consistent attention to detail, expect 2022 to end in style.

Al Mare

1 Cadogan Place, The Carlton Tower
Jumeirah, London SW1X 9PY
Jumeirah.com

See in the New Year with a menu of seven exquisite courses alongside glittering live entertainment, a DJ and glass of Franciacorta sparkling wine on arrival.
