Beyond The Streets

17 February - 9 May | Saatchi Gallery
saatchigallery.com

The most comprehensive graffiti and street exhibition to take place in the UK, filling the entire gallery with original art, rare ephemera, photography, site-specific installations and archival fashion from over 150 artists, icons, rule-breakers and mark-makers.

Look out for street art, bursting out into the neighbourhood. Find out more at kingsroad.co.uk

Live Music on Mondays

Mondays, The Surprise
The surprise-chelsea.co.uk

Throughout February and March, enjoy an evening of live music at The Surprise. Perfectly accompanied by a delicious dinner, take a seat at the bar to hear some of London's most talented musicians performing between 7-10pm. Dinner reservations will be taken from 6pm and for those just popping in for a drink, space is available on a first come, first served basis.

Embroidery Course: Sweetheart Pin Cushions

---

18-19 February | National Army Museum
Nam.ac.uk

A two-day embroidery course led by the experts from Hand & Lock, inspired by the sweetheart pin cushions held at the Museum, originally sent as gifts between soldiers and their loved ones.

If a tree falls, does it hear sound? Writing Workshop

---

12 February | Chelsea Physic Garden
Chelseaphysicgarden.co.uk

Forming part of A Dash of Lavender: Celebrating LGBTQ+ history month with Queer Botany, join LiLi K. Bright for a writing workshop, exploring what it might be to experience your environment from a tree's perspective, or wildflowers, or fungi. Tickets are £15 per person.

Orchestral Valentines

---

14 February | Cadogan Hall
Cadoganhall.com

An evening of the most romantic pieces of music ever written, with masterpieces taken from film, opera and classical music, performed by the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra. Enjoy a brilliant evening with much-loved classics from Tchaikovsky, Chopin, Verdi and Massenet.
