STRAWBERRIES

& SCREEN

Strawberries & Screen returns to Duke of York Square from 14-16 July, serving up all the action from the Wimbledon Centre Court.

Catch the Men's Semi-Finals and both Men's and Women's Finals live-screened from the green opposite the Saatchi Gallery. Refreshments and traditional tennis accompaniments will be available from pop-up bars from Partridges and Polpo, and visitors on Saturday, can pick up artisanal picnic treats from the weekly Fine Food Market. And those lucky enough to book VIP seating can order from Vardo with deckchair-delivery included. Visitors can pre-book complimentary VIP seating from which to enjoy exclusive front-row seats, with a number reserved for on the day walk-ins. To check availability, please contact your Lifestyle Manager – lifestylemanager@cadoganconcierge.co.uk.

Due to popular demand, spaces are limited so if you are unsuccessful, please do bring a picnic blanket to watch the action from the green.

What's on in Chelsea

MUSIC • ART • THEATRE • EXHIBITIONS • FOOD

Kensington & Chelsea Festival

1 July - 31 August, Across Chelsea
kcfestival.co.uk

Born out of a desire to lift spirits through celebrating culture and creativity across Kensington + Chelsea, the Festival spans theatre, circus, opera, dance, music, outdoor arts, family shows, participatory activities, talks, walks and public art pieces. Spanning the summer months, the Festival re-imagines the borough's well-known and less-discovered places by showcasing exceptional emerging and established artists, through shows presented in venues plus outdoor pop up performances and artworks.

The Garden Museum Talk

4 July, The Surprise
Thestrisurprise-chelsea.co.uk

An evening in conversation with Christopher Woodward, Director of The Garden Museum and Caspar Williams, museum patron, celebrating some of the museums most best exhibitions including 'Derek Jarman: My Gardens Boundaries are the Horizon' and 'Lucian Freud: Plant Portraits'. The pair will also discuss the question: is there a new generation of artists engaging with flowers and gardens as a subject?

Road to Recovery

Until 28 August, National Army Museum
Nam.ac.uk

Follow the challenging journey of the rehabilitation and recovery of soldiers suffering from life-changing physical or mental injury. From the help they receive and the resilience required to continue in recovery, this exhibition explores the lives of the 'unexpected survivors' from recent conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Savour Festival

21 – 23 July, Royal Hospital Chelsea
Savourfestival.com
