Garden Lates: Evening Jazz

11 August, Chelsea Physic Garden
chelseaphysicgarden.co.uk

Experience the magic of jazz at Chelsea Physic Garden, where within the walls of London's oldest botanical garden, listen to some of the city's best emerging jazz talent filling the air with soulful swings and rhythmic beats. Bring your own picnic and blanket, then relax and enjoy a beautiful summer's evening.

Tony Christie 'A Life Of Music'

10 August, Pizza Express Live
pizzaexpresslive.com

Experience the powerful vocals of this legendary crooner who continues to captivate audiences around the world, generation after generation, with a set list that packs a punch. From one of the biggest selling singles of the past two decades Is This The Way to Amarillo, through to other classics including Avenues & Alleyways, Las Vegas and I Did What I Did For Maria, and some show stopping covers from the late greats that helped shape the career of this humble veteran from Yorkshire.

Zog and the Flying Doctors

Until 31 August, Cadogan Hall
cadoganhall.com

Zog and the Flying Doctors land at Cadogan Hall for the culmination of their UK tour, delighting audiences with a stage adaptation of this best-loved book by Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler. Telling the story of Zog, super keen student turned air-ambulance, who, together with his Flying Doctor crew, tends to a sunburnt mermaid, a unicorn with one too many horns and a lion with the flu, book your tickets now for this truly modern take on the classic fairy tale.

G

22 August – 21 September, Royal Court Theatre
royalcourttheatre.com

G is a bold, visceral play from writer Tife Kusoro, winner of the George Devine Award 2023, and follows the story of an urban legend that has it that Baitface steals the faces and lives of Black Boys. All it takes is walking underneath a pair of trainers suspended on a telephone wire, face uncovered. Khaleem, Joy and Kai are just trying to get through school. On the night of an alleged crime, when the spirit of Baitface the Gullyman rears its head, their lives, identities and friendships begin to disintegrate.

The Inside 'Scoop'

Chill out this August and indulge in a frozen treat at one of Chelsea's scoop-tacular spots.

Ice Cream Union

Pavilion Road, London, SW1X 0AX
icecreamunion.com

For anyone in the know, Ice Cream Union is the place to go for an incredible frozen treat - the queues speak for themselves. Here, you'll find the classics from their existing range, as well as newer flavours such as honeycomb (made with honey from The London Honey Company), cornflake, lemon pie, and seasonal treats including this summer's Pimms sorbet, and Aperol Spritz sorbet, and two vegan ice cream offerings. You can also order take-home punnets when one scoop just isn't enough.

Anya Hindmarch Ice Cream Project

11 Pont Street, London, SW1X 9EH
anyahindmarch.com

Returning for its third year, The Ice Cream Project, is back at The Anya Village until 18 August, serving a line up of unexpectedly delicious ice creams and sorbets. The brand new flavours – with a few return cameos – celebrate Anya Hindmarch's favourite cult food brands, think Filippo Berio Pesto, Kikkoman Soy Sauce, McVitie's Jaffa Cakes and Tiptree Orange Marmalade among many other surprisingly satisfying twists. And, this year, expect a few added extras, including branded caps, ice cream-inspired T-shirts and even an ice cream tasting menu.

La Maison Ani

1 Cadogan Pl, London SW1X 9PY
laisonanilondon.com

An unmissable moment on new opening La Maison Ani's dessert menu is the chef's signature Glace au fromage Hokkaido made à la minute and served with roasted strawberries, a truly decadent dessert intended for two. Indulge in the smoothness of this homemade ice cream, crafted with luxurious Hokkaido cream imported from Japan, and elevated with the flavours of roasted French strawberries and hazelnut crumble for a perfect balance of taste and texture.

Colbert

50-52 Sloane Square, London, SW1W 8AX
colbertrestaurant.com

What could be more thoroughly indulgent than a classic banana split? At Colbert, the banana is caramelised and topped with vanilla ice cream, whipped cream, raspberry purée and flaked almonds. Warm chocolate sauce is added at the table (so you can have as much as you want). Take an alfresco table on the terrace and indulge in your dessert while people watching on Sloane Square.

Knoops

69 King's Rd, London SW3 4NT
knoops.co.uk

Knoops has the chocolate scene mastered with a concept based around choosing the perfect percentage from their carefully curated chocolate menu. And now, to suit your summer sweet craving, look no further than Knoops' new ice cream offering, topped with a generous sprinkling of crushed golden honeycomb. Visit the King's Road store to try their signature soft serve crowned in a sweet sticky comb, topped with chocolate sauce and a Knoops chocolate disc on top too, this 'queen bee' of ice creams is the perfect celebration of late summer's balmy buzz.

Cold Stone Creamery

99 King's Rd, London SW3 4PA
coldstonecreamery.co.uk

New kid on the King's Road block, Cold Stone Creamery serves up the ultimate indulgence from unique ice cream creations to smoothies, cakes and shakes. It starts with using the highest quality ingredients and ends with their signature process for preparing your custom creation on a frozen granite stone. Priding themselves on providing you with a '10-Minute Vacation', stepping through the doors you will be whisked away to warmer climates with their playful ice cream creations.

Amorino

67A King's Rd, London SW3 4NT
amorino.com

Enjoy a taste of Italy this summer with one of Amorino's artisanal gelati shaped in their unique yet instantly recognisable way - a rose. Choose as many flavours as you like from over 36 key flavour offerings, all free from artificial flavourings and made from selected organic ingredients. The team will prepare your perfect scoop with as many flavours as there are petals on the flower and for an added treat, top your creation with a gelato-filled macaron, just like a cherry on a cake.
