Chelsea History Festival

25 - 29 September, across Chelsea chelseaheritagequarter.co.uk

Chelsea History Festival returns with a captivating programme of events across the neighbourhood that will see the National Army Museum, Royal Hospital Chelsea and Chelsea Physic Garden come together to celebrate Chelsea's rich heritage and vibrant present.

Immerse yourself in history this autumn through a stellar lineup of walking tours, enlightening talks, family-friendly workshops and performances.

The Ministry of Ungentlemanly Warfare: From Page to Screen

28 September | National Army Museum
chelseaheritagequarter.co.uk

Author Damien Lewis discusses the making of the hit movie 'The Ministry of Ungentlemanly Warfare', based on his bestselling book. Set in winter 1939, Winston Churchill knew that Britain had to change tact if they were going to win the war, and so a completely new kind of warfare was born, conducted by a band of eccentric free-thinking warriors to become the first 'deniable' secret operatives to strike behind enemy lines.

Hidden Treasures Tour

29 September | Chelsea Physic Garden
chelseaheritagequarter.co.uk

Join this historical tour of London's oldest botanical garden and discover the hidden places that dwell within. An experienced guide will take you through the history of the garden, its connection to the River Thames, and the relation with the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea. This is a chance to see the Physic Garden like you've never seen it before.

Walking Tour: Women of Chelsea

25 September | National Army Museum
chelseaheritagequarter.co.uk

Join expert guide Katie Wignall to explore the lives and legacies of the women who helped shape Chelsea. During a three-mile walking tour through the back streets of Chelsea, Katie will tell the sometimes humorous, sometimes tragic – but always inspiring – stories of the women of Chelsea.

The Falklands Fallen

27 September | Royal Hospital Chelsea
chelseaheritagequarter.co.uk

The Falklands War in 1982 resulted in the deaths of 255 British soldiers and 3 civilians. While much has been written on this military action, author Jay Morgan Hyrons details the personal stories of those behind the uniforms and shares untold details of the three civilians who died towards the end of the war in her book and in this Chelsea History Festival exclusive talk.

Next, join on 14 September from 2-5pm for a Cocktail Masterclass where you can indulge in creations inspired by the new cologne and then on 15 September from 12-4pm pop in again for a Box Illustration experience where your iconic Jo Malone gift boxes will be personalised with designs inspired by the scent.

Master the Art of Breathwork

11 September, Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park, London
mandarinoriental.com

Join Holistic Health for an exclusive masterclass on building long-lasting stress resilience with Phil Simha, the esteemed breathing coach from Clinique La Prairie. From 10am - 1pm, Phil will guide you through breathwork techniques to help improve sleep, manage stress, boost metabolism, and strengthen your immune system. Following the masterclass, enjoy a delightful brunch at The Rosebery. For more information and to book your place, please see here.

Giant

20 September – 16 November, Royal Court Theatre
royalcourttheatre.com

Inspired by real events, Mark Rosenblatt's debut play explores with dark humour the difference between considered opinion and dangerous rhetoric. It's the summer of 1983, The Witches is about to hit the shelves and Roald Dahl is making last-minute edits. But the outcry at his recent, explicitly antisemitic article won't die down. Across a single afternoon at his family home, and rocked by an unexpectedly explosive confrontation, Dahl is forced to choose: make a public apology or risk his name and reputation.

Getting Them Home: The Flying Nightingales

20 September, National Army Museum
nam.ac.uk

Dr Emily Mayhew tells the remarkable story of the Flying Nightingales, a group of nurses who flew across the Channel to help evacuate injured soldiers from the beaches of Normandy following the D-Day landings. In this fascinating talk, Dr Mayhew will highlight the role of these nurses, the work they undertook, and how they were viewed by the soldiers they were rescuing.

Styling Masterclass with Nana Acheampong

12 September, Anthropologie anthropologie.com

Join esteemed fashion editor and celebrity stylist Nana Acheampong for a styling masterclass to celebrate the launch of Anthropologie's autumn campaign 'I <3 Anthro'. Nana will be dishing out the 101 in how to play with texture, proportion, and layers this autumn, as well as answering questions on fashion dilemmas and giving out top outfit recommendations.

Talk: Trees for the Future

chelseaphysicgarden.co.uk

Join Kew Garden's former Head of Arboretum, Tony Kirkham, in conversation with garden designer and environmental campaigner Arit Anderson and tree expert Henrik Sjöman for a discussion of their book The Essential Tree Selection Guide. In an era when selecting the right tree is critical for combating climate change and enhancing our environment, they will explore innovative approaches to tree planting and the essential role of trees in providing shade, preventing flooding, and filtering pollution.

Royal Philharmonic Orchestra

18 September, Cadogan Hall
cadoganhall.com

In the opening concert of their new season, guest conductor Long Yu - China's pre-eminent living conductor - opens up a veritable musical picture book, and whether it's a radiant vision of a Russian dawn or Mussorgsky's fantastic musical art gallery, you are guaranteed terrific tunes in fabulous colours.

Sensational Set Menus

Whether you're after lunch in a hurry or a speedy supper, these are the best set menus to enjoy across the neighbourhood.

CLAP London

12-14 Basil Street, London, SW3 1AJ
claprestaurant.com

Experience contemporary Japanese cuisine and take a deep dive into dishes that challenge norms, where unconventional elegance meets natural simplicity. With breathtaking views across the rooftops of Chelsea, for £35 per person, enjoy CLAP's set lunch menu and start with the Miso Soup before starters of Sashimi - made the CLAP way, Shrimp Tempura Roll or Crispy Rice topped with Salmon. Delicious mains include Miso Black Cod, Quinoa Risotto and Marinated Lamb Rack, and if you have a little more time to spare, make sure to finish with one of their decadent desserts, the signature Chocolate Fondant is not to be missed.

Hans' Bar & Grill

164 Pavilion Rd, London, SW1X 0AW
11cadogangardens.com

Hans' Bar & Grill is best loved for being the go-to for every meal of the day, with a prime position on Pavilion Road. And now, they have added another string to their bow with Entrecote Night, available every Wednesday at just £37pp. Perfect for Date Night or for something hearty pre-theatre, head to Hans' to be served up their signature steak frites with the iconic herb butter sauce and a green salad tossed in French vinaigrette. Opt for a table in their wine room and try to resist the temptation of finding the perfect wine pairing for your sumptuous steak dinner. Don't forget that King's Road Privilege Card members can enjoy 10% off the bill also.

Rabbit

172 Kings Road, London, SW3 4UP
rabbit-restaurant.com

Rabbit is Chelsea's quintessential farm-to-fork restaurant, always keeping to their ethos of serving up sustainability and capturing the flavours of the English countryside in every bite. This season's set lunch menu sees guests able to enjoy two courses for £22 or upgrade to three courses for just £25. Choose between two starters, Bruschetta with London Burrata & Arundel Pesto or Essex Purple Sprouting Broccoli with Wild Garlic Mayo, then go for either the Asparagus Ravioli or Lyons Hill Beef Sirloin with Rainbow Carrot and Parsnip Salsa. For dessert there is just one choice because who can resist a Brown Butter Milk Caramel Set Cream with Chocolate Soil? Asking for a friend...

©Rabbit

Azzurra

127–128 Sloane Street, SW1X 9AS
azzurrarestaurant.co.uk

Farm-to-fork, meet 'boat-to-table', the ethos that has landed on our Chelsea shores, helmed by Azzurra, master finessers of the elegant simplicity of Italian cooking whilst using sustainably sourced ingredients from around the British Isles. The Express Lunch menu is a whistle stop tour through some of Azzurra's most loved highlights, including Fritto Misto, Branzino fillet and a classic Margherita pizza. Two-courses are available for £30pp while adding something sweet for three-courses will come to £36pp and ensure you can enjoy Azzurra's tableside Tiramisu, available in, not one, not two, but three fantastic flavours.

Elystan Street

43 Elystan St, London, SW3 3NT
elystanstreet.com

With a reputation that precedes them, Elystan Street is famous for fine dining and an Eat, Drink and Be Merry ethos. The menu revolves around an exceptional dining experience with pure, seasonal, ingredient led dishes packed full of flavour, while the set menu presents guests with an array of delicious dishes priced at £45 for three courses. To start, pick between the Cashew nut hummus, the Cured chalk stream trout or the Cuttlefish ink gnocchetti, before your choice of main, the Tarte fine of courgetes, the Fillet of Cornish hake or the Spatchcock roasted poussin. For the final flourish, enjoy either the Fig leaf ice cream or a classic vanilla pannacotta.

The Ivy Chelsea Garden

197 King's Rd, London SW3 5EQ
ivycollection.com

Dining inside The Ivy treats guests to dashes of Art-Deco details and beautiful burnt orange banquettes, but for those truly in the know, it's the coveted tables on the terrace that are the real prize. No matter your chosen table, it does not get better than dining off the 1917 menu, an ode to the 100 year Ivy history, priced at, you guessed it, £19.17 for two courses. With many an option to choose from, find yourself enjoying a starter of roasted tomato soup or an Asian crab salad followed by a main of Scottish smoked haddock and salmon fishcake, a Plant-based Malaysian curry and even The Ivy's original Shepherd's Pie. For an additional £5, don't miss the showstopper that is

The Ivy's signature chocolate bombe.

Ixchel

33H King's Rd, London SW3 4LX
ixchellondon.com

Ixchel has brought the authentic flavours of Mexico to the heart of Chelsea and while their restaurant is inspired by the Mayan goddess of the moon, the flavourful dishes served up by Head Chef Ximena Gayosso are nothing to sleep on. And now, her expertly curated set lunch menu offers a three-course experience priced at £28.50pp, perfect for sharing among friends, family or colleagues. Just as soon as you're seated, your group will tuck into fresh guacamole before deciding which dishes to enjoy, options include the short rib quesadilla, oyster mushroom taco and their signature Ensenada taco filled with crispy white fish. For dessert, cool your palate off with the glazed buñuelo ice cream sandwich and thank us later.

Your London

We take a look at some of the Capital's most exciting dates for your diary.

We can access tickets for a range of occasions including many sold out or unobtainable events. Please contact us for further details covering the world of theatre, sport, exhibitions, comedy, film premieres and concerts...

Van Gogh: Poets and Lovers

14 September – 19 January | The National Gallery
nationalgallery.org.uk

Be blown away by Van Gogh's most spectacular paintings in this once-in-a-century exhibition. Walk with a pair of lovers beneath a starry night, look up at swirling clouds and cypress trees swaying in the wind, stay a little while in Van Gogh's favourite park, the 'Poet's Garden', or under a shady tree in Saint-Rémy - this exhibition brings together the most loved of Van Gogh's paintings from across the globe, some of which are rarely seen in public.

Silk Roads

26 September – 23 February | The British Museum
britishmuseum.org

Camel caravans crossing desert dunes, merchants trading silks and spices at bazaars – these are the images that come to mind when we think of the Silk Roads. But the reality goes far beyond this. Rather than a single trade route from East to West, the Silk Roads were made up of overlapping networks linking communities across Asia, Africa and Europe, from Japan to Britain, and from Scandinavia to Madagascar. This major exhibition unravels how the journeys of people, objects and ideas that formed the Silk Roads shaped cultures and histories.

Monet and London: Views of the Thames

27 September - 19 January | Courtauld Gallery
courtauld.ac.uk

A little known fact about Monet is that some of his most remarkable impressionist paintings were made not in France but in London, depicting extraordinary views of the Thames as it has never been seen before. This exciting exhibition realises Monet's unfulfilled ambition of showing these extraordinary works in London, just 300 metres from the Savoy Hotel where many of them were painted.

Waiting for Godot

13 September – 14 December | Theatre Royal Haymarket
waitingforgodotplay.com

Lucian Msamati and Ben Whishaw star in this witty, absurd, poignant and profound new production of Samuel Beckett's towering masterpiece Waiting for Godot. The plot follows Didi and Gogo waiting by a tree for a man named Godot. They don't know who he is, why they are meeting or what time he is coming – only that something incredible could happen when he does.

Juno and the Paycock

21 September – 23 November | Gielgud Theatre
delfontmackintosh.co.uk

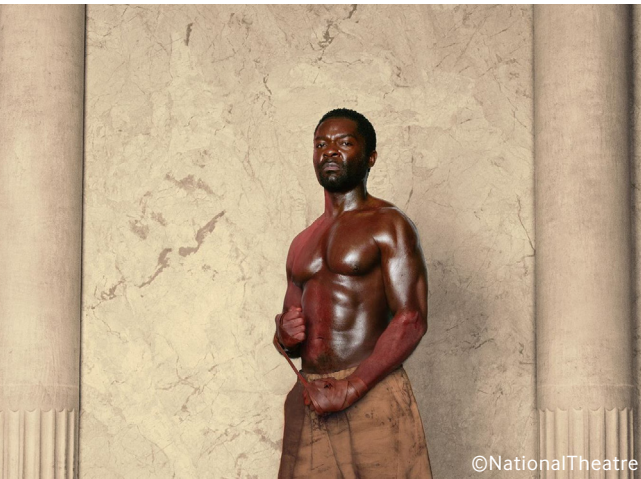

J. Smith-Cameron and Mark Rylance star in this highly anticipated new production of a timeless masterpiece. Set in Dublin, 1922, the Irish Civil War is tearing the nation apart as the Boyle family struggles to make ends meet. Poetic, poignant and hilarious, these two powerhouse actors star opposite each other to deliver powerful performances reflecting a mother's resilience in the most trying of times.

A Face in the Crowd

10 September – 9 November | The Young Vic
youngvic.org

A Hollywood classic reignited as a musical by legendary singer songwriter Elvis Costello and award-winning Broadway playwright Sarah Ruhl about celebrity, power and politics, starring West End veteran Ramin Karimloo and Anoushka Lucas.

Coriolanus

11 September - 9 November | National Theatre
nationaltheatre.org.uk

David Oyelowo makes his highly anticipated return to the London stage in this thrilling new production of Shakespeare's timeless political tragedy. Coriolanus is Rome's greatest soldier, unrivalled in the art of war and undefeated on the field of battle. When high office calls, Coriolanus refuses to play the game of politics, quickly making him Rome's most dangerous enemy.

Goodwood Revival

6-8 September | Goodwood Circuit
goodwood.com

The only historic motor race meeting staged entirely in a period theme, Goodwood Revival is an immersive celebration of iconic cars and fashion. Journey into the world of Goodwood, where classic motor racing's heart beats in concert with craftsmanship and tradition, and every engine's roar recalls a thrilling tale of yesteryear.

National Television Awards

11 September | O2 Arena
nationaltvawards.com

Television's biggest night of the year returns to the O2 Arena this September crowning TV royalty, voted for exclusively by the British public, with the results revealed live in a spectacular celebration of the nation's most loved stars and shows. Join hundreds of household names as they tussle to be presented with one of the coveted awards.

England V Sri Lanka

6-10 September | Kia Oval
kiaoval.com

The Final Test Match of the British Summer will once again take place at The Kia Oval as England Men host Sri Lanka. This test marks the end of the British cricket season and, with England having triumphed over Sri Lanka at their last two Test Matches, will be the nail biting conclusion to this summer's sporting rivalry.

Jungle

12 September | O2 Arena
theo2.co.uk

An unmissable live experience as Jungle takes over the O2 in this major milestone and headline performance for the group, off the back of their critically acclaimed fourth album, 'VOLCANO' and monster hit 'back on 74'. Showcasing masterful instrumentation and signature nu-disco electronic funk, the show promises to be a special evening from these festival favourites.

Future of Food Festival

16 - 22 September | Regent Street
regentstreetonline.com

Returning to London with a series of unforgettable events, this sensational, sustainable, food-centric festival celebrates London's buzzing culinary scene. The events programme, curated to inspire, evoke and educate takes guests through meet and greets with the industry's greats, talks from experts on how to protect the future of food in years to come, immersive experiences in culinary wonders and of course, great tasting food.

Claridge's Kitchen Supper Series

25 September | Claridge's
