Comedy at Cadogan Hall with Ed Gamble

20 February, Cadogan Hall
cadoganhall.com

The unmissable comedy show returns with some of the biggest names in comedy. Headlined by Off Menu host and Taskmaster champion, Ed Gamble, alongside Wonka star, Tom Davis and Britain's Got Talent finalist, Nabil Abdulrashid, exciting newcomer Sharon Wanjohi and Have I Got News For You panelist, Chloe Petts, a hilarious evening awaits.

Gary Bunt: Marrows, Spuds & Onions

4-9 March, Saatchi Gallery
saatchigallery.com

Prior to becoming a painter, Gary Bunt spent many years working on building sites throughout Kent and Sussex, surrounded by his family. He describes the days as long and hard, but full of laughter, loyalty, respect and love. Gary fondly recalls the moments he spent with his dad and seven uncles, and whilst packed into cars on cold winter mornings, longed for spring to arrive. It was in reminiscing about these moments, hearing the laughter and wise advice, he felt inspired to create a work based on old sayings. In this exhibition, Marrows, Spuds & Onions, Gary Bunt presents a new selection of works, inspired by days spent outdoors, be sure not to miss out and plan your visit for early March.

A Celebration of Mary Quant

Until 28 February, Jumeirah Carlton Tower
jumeirah.com

In the 'Swinging Sixties', fashion icon, Dame Mary Quant famously held photoshoots, press days and collection launches at the then 'Carlton Tower Hotel'. In honour of London Fashion Week and her recent birthday, discover a vintage MQ dress on display in the hotel's lobby. Alongside, enjoy a floral installation by Pavilion Road's own Moyses Stevens – echoing the dress in both colour and pattern – and an exclusive limited-edition dessert made with vanilla and tonka, almond sponge, exotic fruit cream, topped with decorative white chocolate flowers. Make sure you also head to Duke of York Square to see the colourful mural in honour of her legacy afterwards!

Marching Orders: Duty in the Dark

19 February, National Army Museum
nam.ac.uk

A family friendly gallery exploring the work the Army performs under the cover of night. What nickname do soldiers give their sleeping bags? What did soldiers in the trenches use to stop spies under the cover of darkness? What trick do soldiers use to fall asleep in two minutes? Find out on this interactive fun-filled family tour.

Psychedelic Queer Nature Inspired Printmaking Workshop

20 February, Chelsea Physic Garden
chelseaphysicgarden.co.uk

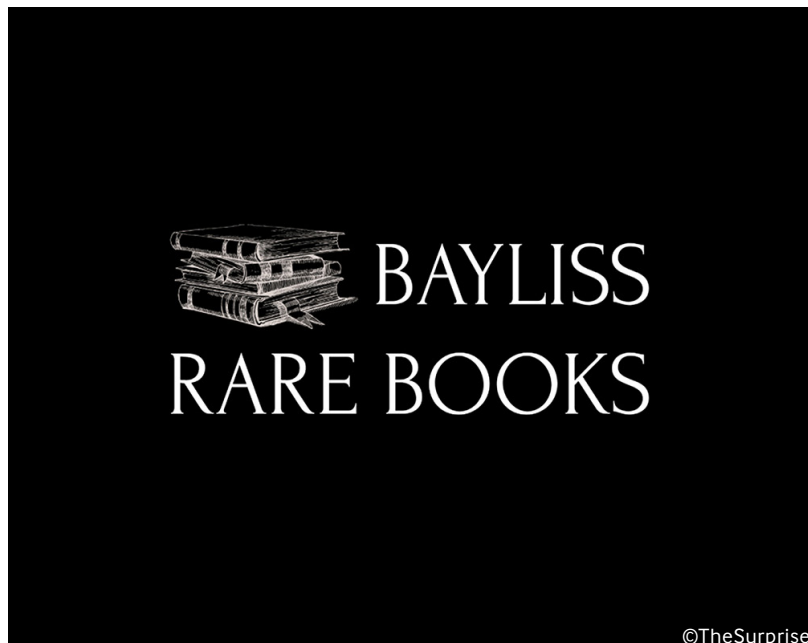

Celebrate LGBTQ+ History Month with this Printmaking Workshop led by Queer Art Club London. Start with a nighttime wander in London's oldest botanical Garden, then make your way to the studio to learn how to design and create lino cuts, as well as play with Mono-printing using real leaves and plants to create your prints. You will then be able to print your designs onto t-shirts using colourful inks. This workshop is for LGBTQ+ people and is suitable for those of all levels of experience.

Inn good company with Oliver Bayliss

18 February, The Surprise
thesurprise-chelsea.co.uk

Join Oliver Bayliss of Bayliss Rare Books for an engaging talk on the art of collecting rare books. With years of experience uncovering literary treasures, Oliver will share insights into what makes a book rare, the thrill of discovery, and stories from his hunts for the most elusive of texts. Oliver will also be bringing a number of first editions from his shelves to share.

A Knock on the Roof

21 February - 8 March, Royal Court Theatre
royalcourttheatre.com

Mariam knows the Army often drops small warning bombs – a knock on the roof – giving tenants in Gaza 5-15 minutes to evacuate before their home is destroyed. With dry wit and determination, Mariam meticulously rehearses for the run of her life, deliberating what – and who- she can take with her. Written by and starring Khawla Ibraheem, this unforgettable new play about obsession, survival and everyday life in Gaza is directed and developed by Obie Award winner Oliver Butler.

Flo Collective Plays Powerhouse Soul Anthems

22 February, The Pheasantry
pizzaexpresslive.com

The Flo Collective Soul Band is back again at PizzaExpress presenting electrifying Powerhouse Soul Anthems! Expect songs from the Queen of Soul, Aretha Franklin, as well as Chaka Khan, Jocelyn Brown, Whitney Houston, Sister Sledge, just to name a few!

Now boarding: Air Anya

Until 6 April, Anya Village
anyahindmarch.com

Air Anya touches down in The Anya Village with a celebration of the glamour of air travel. Once on board, you'll be transported to the 1970s, with authentic details from aeroplane interiors, recreating the glamour of travelling by air. Fall in love with these mouthwatering menus from the neighbourhood's most romantically inclined restaurants.

Hans' Bar & Grill

164 Pavilion Road, London, SW1X 0AW
11cadogangardens.com

Celebrate love this Valentine's Day at Hans' Bar & Grill, with a beautifully curated set menu. Starting with Nduja Arancini nibbles, followed by starters of Pan-fried Scallops, Chicken & Chorizo Ballotine or a Spiced Lentil Salad, for mains, let yourself be delighted by Grass-Fed Fillet Steak, Glazed Salmon or for a walk on the wild side, why not opt for the Wild Mushroom and Ricotta Tortellini. And, for dessert, choose from a Strawberry Pebble or a zingy Lemon and Raspberry Pavlova. Why not upgrade dinner to an overnight stay at 11 Cadogan Gardens or The Chelsea Townhouse? In addition to red roses, champagne and chocolate on arrival, your experience will be further elevated with the addition of a complimentary Olfactorium Experience with Penhaligon's in their King's Road boutique.

Azzurra

127 – 128 Sloane St, London SW1X 9AS
azzurrarestaurant.co.uk

Start your romantic evening over Azzurra's Valentine Seafood Platter, including a lobster, Cornish dressed crab, oysters, Sicilian red prawns, sea bass tartare, and both salmon and tuna crudo. Whilst you indulge, sip on the Romeo e Giulietta cocktail – a blend Gin, rhubarb cordial, rhubarb liqueur, Muyu Chinotto Nero, topped with cotton candy – before diving heart first into the heart-shaped dark chocolate mousse dessert. Their in-house DJ also promises to add to your night of romance with backing music throughout.

The LaLee

75 Sloane St, London SW1X9SG
belmond.com

Join The LaLee for an opulent date night with a specially curated three-course menu for £85pp. Highlights include Parkland Estate venison served with savoy cabbage, smoked bacon and chestnut and port sauce, and lovingly crafted desserts, delicately designed by talented Head Pastry Chef Marina Carrera. Renowned French pastry chef Benoit Blin will also be honouring the celebration of love, transforming his signature Afternoon Tea menu into a truly romantic affair, taking inspiration from the famous French love song 'La Vie en Rose' by Edith Piaf. Enjoy a welcome glass of rosé Champagne, before an array of sweet and savoury delicacies ensue. No experience is complete without the infamous dessert trolley - all enjoyed in the whimsical surroundings of The Cadogan Lounge. Book here to enjoy Valentine's Afternoon Tea.

Meat The Fish

39 Cadogan Gardens, London, SW3 2TB
meatthefish.co.uk

For the perfect Valentine's celebration, Meat The Fish has all the key components: amazing food, a stunning setting, and drinks to match. Whether it is a glass of fine wine, a signature cocktail, or some bubbles to toast the occasion, all your romantic bases are covered at this neighbourhood favourite. Enjoy a special £68 Valentine's set menu, comprising standout dishes such as the signature beef tacos and salmon carpaccio, paired with warm, attentive service. With everything taken care of, all that's missing is you and someone special to share it with.

The Aubrey

66 Knightsbridge, London, SW1X 7LA
theaubreycollection.com

This Valentine's Day, enjoy an exclusive set menu of Japanese-inspired dishes, paired with expertly curated drinks and a complimentary glass of champagne. A luxurious set menu begins with a decadent selection of starters, including a chef's sushi platter, Lovers' Chicken Sando, and The Aubrey Caviar. The rich flavours of Robatayaki lobster with red miso and T-bone steak with truffle ponzu, follow before ending on a sweet note with the Sakura heart – a delicate mango and lemongrass cheesecake with vanilla sponge – and an assortment of petit fours. Elevate your experience by preceding your dinner with an indulgent treatment at the Mandarin Oriental's world-class spa, the perfect picks for you and your Valetine are the English Rose poultice massage or the Restorative Hot Stones.

Colbert

50-52 Sloane Square, London, SW1W 8AX
colbertrestaurant.com

Sweep your special off their feet with a dreamy dinner at Colbert, London's charmingly Parisian brasserie. Begin your evening with the ultimate aphrodisiac – Carlingford Rock Oysters, fresh, briny and perfect for setting the mood, and for the finale, share a moment of pure indulgence with their Tarte Tatin à la Mode, a caramelised masterpiece made for two. Whether it's your first date or your forever love, Colbert's intimate ambiance and exquisite French fare make it the perfect setting for romance.

Ottolenghi

261 Pavilion Rd, London SW1X 0BP
ottolenghi.co.uk

It's said that the quickest way to a person's heart is through their stomach and Ottolenghi's Valentine's Day delights are the definitive gift for food lovers. From heart-shaped tahini linzer biscuits topped with a dollop of raspberry jam and buttery shortbread hearts, to specially curated cakes on the counter, Ottolenghi's delights make for deliciously thoughtful gifts to celebrate friends, lovers or a cherished companion.

Comptoir Libanais

53-54, Duke of, York Street, London, SW3 4LY
comptoirlibanais.com

Share the love and share desserts this Valentine's Day. With any booking, receive a complimentary dessert from a delightful selection including a creamy Mango and Vanilla cheesecake, a gooey Chocolate brownie or a fragrant Orange Almond cake. ## The Cadogan Arms

298 King's Rd, London SW3 5UG
thecadoganarms.london

Start your night of love with three oysters and a No3 Gin Martini at The Cadogan Arms (£18), before feasting on a romantic Beef Wellington for two, complete with sides for £110. These tantalising options, a roaring fireplace and cosy interiors provide the perfect setting for a night of romance for you and your loved one.

Sticks'n'Sushi

113-115, King's Rd, London, SW3 4NT
sticksnsushi.com

Say it with sushi and celebrate the person you love 'koibito' this Valentine's Day with a specially curated four-course menu. Lovers will enjoy a selection of signature appetisers, nigiri, house rolls, and sticks of Aka Ebi and Wagyu Yaki. Get hearts fluttering further with the indulgent dark chocolate fondant with a matcha core to finish, served with vanilla ice cream and a matcha cookie crumble. Don't pass up the limited-edition 'For The Sake Of Love' cocktail blending sake with Hibiscus Mezcal and raspberry cordial for a sweet and smooth finish.

Manicomio

83-85 Duke Of York Square, London, SW3 4LY
manicomio.co.uk

For an elegant affair, Manicomio promises a romantic evening they will adore you for. With a Valentine's menu full of flair, enjoy the oysters fresh from Carlingford in Ireland, widely known as the best oyster grower in Europe, or grilled Brixham scallops topped with parsnip puree. Onto main courses, enjoy a grilled Hereford 45-days aged Beef with potato puree, enoki mushrooms with shavings of winter black truffle, and don't miss romantic favourite, heart shaped meringue with strawberries and cream.

The Fuji Grill

Beaverbrook Town House, London, SW16 9PJ
beaverbrooktownhouse.co.uk

At its core, Japanese cuisine celebrates tradition and flavour, two things at the very heart of a well spent Valentine's Day. Be swept up in the romance of an intimate Japanese dinner at Beaverbrook Townhouse's gorgeous restaurant, The Fuji Grill, offering an exquisite Valentine's seven-course menu including O-Toro Tuna Tartare with Crispy Sushi Rice, the chef's signature Sushi and Sashimi selection, Lobster Tempura and an 8oz Scottish Rib-Eye Aged in Honey Truffle. Finally, for something sensational to share with your sweetheart, enjoy the Crème Fraiche Mousse with Shiso Cake, Raspberry Praline and Yuzu sorbet.

The Surprise

6 Christchurch Terrace, London, SW3 4AJ
thesurprise-chelsea.co.uk

Thoughtfully created specials at The Surprise include baked Mont d'Or Vacherin for two, filet mignon, cod and forest mushroom ravioli and a light strawberry parfait. All options perfectly complement their seasonal à la carte selection & paired with wonderful wines from Hallgarten, Coates & Seely English sparkling wine and Cupid inspired cocktails from the talented bar team including a Botivo Paloma with Cazcabel tequila, grapefruit, soda and garnished with a pink grapefruit wedge. All this alongside the setting of the roaring fireplace sets you up for an impressive and cosy Valentine's to remember.

The Pig's Ear

35 Old Church St, London SW3 5BS
pigsearpub.com

The Pig's Ear is embracing its name with a playful twist, offering a cheeky antidote to traditional romance for those who may have "made a pig's ear of it" recently. A perfect opportunity for turning missteps into brownie points, their candle-lit dinner for two highlights some of the Gladwin Brother's hero dishes at the beautiful Chelsea pub, complete with candles and an open fire. Starting with the ultimate in romance: Carlingford oysters fresh from a grand French ice basin set the tone, before a Portland crab doughnut with a seafood bisque arrives to tear and share. So then to the main event—a perfectly cooked retired Sussex beef chop with Oliver Gladwin's legendary horseradish salted caramel, and sides of chimichurri, French fries and a bitterleaf salad. For pudding - a heap of chocolate mousse with butterscotch best enjoyed tête-à-tête - because nothing says romance better than 'two spoons, please'.

Ixchel

33H King's Rd, London SW3 4LX
ixchellondon.com

Celebrate 'El Dia del Amor y la Amistad' at Ixchel with an especially indulgent and romantic menu curated by head chef, Ximena Gayosso Gonzalez. Built to provide the ultimate sensory experience, their menu offers a holy trio of on arrival treats including champagne, oysters and guacamole, before the main events of soft shell crab tacos, grilled seabass or smoky shortrib paired with sides such as Hispi cabbage or salsa verde enriched crispy potatoes, all preceding a selection of delicious desserts such as tres leches cake, chocolate fondant or mango crème brûlée.

Il Trovatore

26 February – 19 July, Royal Opera House
rbo.org.uk

Director Adele Thomas' production interprets this rich story of desire and an all-consuming curse. Troubadour Manrico and military commander Count di Luna have become rivals vying for Leonora's heart. Though Leonora loves Manrico, the jealous Count will do everything in his power to have her. Battles between the Count's army and Manrico's men ensue, and he and Manrico agree to a duel.

PLATFORM: Bethan Laura Wood

From 14 February | The Design Museum
designmuseum.org

The inaugural PLATFORM display presents the work of Bethan Laura Wood. Wood is a multi-disciplinary designer whose work is characterised by material investigation, artisan collaboration and a passion for colour, detail and decoration. She is fascinated by the connections we make with the everyday objects that surround us and, as a collector herself, likes to explore what drives people to hold onto one particular object while discarding another.
