YOUR LONDON

The Capital's most exciting dates for your diary

A Chelsea Christmas

Celebrate the season with Chelsea's most magical experiences. From sparkling light trails and enchanting markets to family-friendly festivities, the neighbourhood is alive with holiday cheer. Here is your merry guide to everything you need.

Ever After Garden

Until 16 December, Duke of York Square
royalmarsden.org

This winter, Chelsea welcomes one of London's most poignant and beautiful traditions: the Ever After Garden. Nestled in the heart of Duke of York Square, over 30,000 illuminated white roses will bloom in quiet tribute, each one a symbol of remembrance, love, and hope. The Ever After Garden invites visitors to dedicate a rose in memory of someone cherished, with all proceeds supporting The Royal Marsden Cancer Charity. To dedicate a rose click HERE.

Ralph Lauren Holiday Experience

Until 24 December, Sloane Square
ralphlauren.co.uk

Ralph Lauren has brought the magic of the holidays to Sloane Square with The Ralph Lauren Holiday Experience. Explore a holiday-themed barn featuring craft workshops, cookie decorating, and a Father Christmas surrounded by snow-dusted pines. Relax at the Ralph's Coffee pop-up with seasonal treats like mulled wine and Ginger Bear Cookies, or shop for perfect gifts at the Holiday Shop, offering Polo Bear collectibles and Polo classics, all in support of The Royal Marsden Cancer Charity.

Chelsea Winter Village

26 November - 28 December, Royal Hospital Chelsea
chelsea-pensioners.co.uk

The grounds of the Royal Hospital Chelsea have transformed into a breathtaking winter wonderland. The perfect Christmas activity for families and friends. Discover a captivating 1.5km illuminated trail through Ranelagh Gardens, featuring large-scale art, interactive installations, and imaginative soundscapes. Wander through glowing archways and fairy-lit corners, and enjoy flickering firepits, festive food and drink in abundance.

Anya's Grotto

Until 24 December, Sloane Street
anyahindmarch.com

Step into a world of enchantment as Anya's Grotto returns to The Village this Christmas. Families are invited to journey through twinkling snow scenes and glittering caves guided by Father Christmas himself. Each 30-minute experience includes storytelling and a beautifully wrapped gift. Afterwards, enjoy time in the charming Grotto Gift Shop twinned with a festive afternoon tea at the Anya Café for an indulgent seasonal treat.

Christmas Tin Craft for kids

12 - 14 December, National Army Museum nam.ac.uk

Step back in time this festive season and create your very own Princess Mary Christmas gift tin. In 1914, during the First World War, soldiers received a heartfelt surprise from Princess Mary: a beautifully crafted brass tin filled with thoughtful treats. This simple gesture brought comfort and joy in a time of hardship. Now it's your turn to capture that same spirit of giving. Decorate your own Christmas tin and fill it with treasures of your choice. What delightful surprises will you include?

Pinecone Wreath Making Workshop

6 December, Chelsea Physic Garden
chelseaphysicgarden.co.uk

Chelsea Physic Garden invites you to embrace the art of seasonal crafting with an enchanting wreath-making experience. Guided by expert hands, you'll work with pinecones and exquisite natural materials to create a piece that reflects your own unique style, ready to grace your home with timeless beauty year after year. Sip mulled wine, soak in the festive ambience, and leave with a handcrafted botanical masterpiece that celebrates the season in the most elegant way.

Thanksgiving at Bluebird

350 King's Rd, SW3 5UU
