Chelsea in Bloom

18-24 May 2026
chelseainbloom.co.uk

Save the date for London's largest free-to-attend flower festival, where over 130 shops, restaurants and businesses transform their frontages with floral masterpieces inspired by this year's 'Out of this World' theme. Expect UFOs, lunar landscapes, mythical 4m dragons and Pegasus, and show-stopping installations across the neighbourhood. Chelsea will be transformed into an intergalactic floral wonderland and an otherworldly celebration of creativity. Visit chelseainbloom.co.uk.

Salon Privé Showcase

11 April 2026, 11-5pm
Sloane Street

On Saturday 11 April, (North) Sloane Street will host a luxury open air automotive showcase, with a curated collection of rare vintage classics and their cutting edge modern counterparts lining the Street. Open to the public and for one day only, this static showcase is one not to be missed. Find out more here: www.sloanestreet.co.uk.

Robin Haigh: Tearfloods & Orff: Carmina Burana

19 April 2026, 6pm
cadoganhall.com

The Crouch End Festival Chorus presents a thrilling choral concert featuring the world premiere of Robin Haigh's Tearfloods: Homage to Miyazaki, and one of the world's best-known choral works, Orff's Carmina Burana.

Willet's Restaurant Opening

From 2 April 2026, The Cadogan, A Belmond Hotel
belmond.com

Opening 2nd April, Willett's is a new contemporary British bistro in the heart of Chelsea. It will be an all-day dining destination focused on seasonal British cuisine, from inventive crumpets to classic Sunday roasts, alongside a lively bar. Set within warm, heritage-inspired interiors, it is poised to become a local favourite. To celebrate their opening, they are offering 50% off food from 2–12 April.

The Wink & Nudge: Andrew Moncrief and Sebastian Neeb

3 April - 6 May 2026, Gallery 3
saatchigallery.com

Andrew Moncrief and Sebastian Neeb use humour and unusual forms to rethink art, exploring broken-up figures and found materials. Their quirky, totem-like sculptures and fragmented portraits playfully challenge tradition, with a hint of unease, inviting viewers to find meaning in works that feel both strange and familiar.

Easter Specials

From indulgent feasts to long, leisurely lunches, Easter in Chelsea is a moment to gather, celebrate and savour the season. Here is where to book for special menus, spring flavours and perfectly mixed cocktails over the bank holiday weekend.

The Trafalgar

224-226 King's Rd, London SW3 5UA

For a bank holiday weekend well spent, head to the King's Road's first new pub in over a century. It is a handsome, lively spot made for settling in. Think standout British roasts, generous sharing cuts, good wine flowing, and live piano setting the tone downstairs every Sunday, 2–4pm.

La Maison Ani

The Carlton Tower, 1 Cadogan Pl, London SW1X 9PY

For Easter Sunday, La Maison Ani brings a seasonal menu to the table. Elegant, quietly buzzy with a distinctly French touch, it is perfect for a relaxed celebration with friends or family. Expect dishes such as artichokes, morel mushrooms, whole lobster and a herb-crusted lamb rack to share, followed by an indulgent Oeuf Chocolat filled with pecan praline or salted butter caramel. Cadogan VIP readers dining on Easter Sunday, will receive a complimentary slice of Tarte Citron Meringue.

Ottolenghi

261 Pavilion Rd, London SW1X 0BP

With longer days and a hint of warmth in the air, there is every reason to gather over delicious food. Ottolenghi's spring catering menu is made for it, bold, generous dishes designed to be shared, including slow-cooked lamb shoulder, vibrant sides and freshly baked hot cross buns.

Sir Frank's Bar Beaverbrook Townhouse

115-116 Sloane St, London SW1X 9PJ

Celebrate Sakura season at Sir Frank's Bar at Beaverbrook Town House with a limited cocktail collection. Expect Japanese ingredients, soft florals and subtle cherry blossom notes, a neighbourhood favourite for spring drinks.

The Surprise

6 Christchurch Terrace, London SW3 4AJ

This Easter weekend, Somerset Meadow lamb takes centre stage, followed by chocolate eggs for little ones and plenty of indulgent treats for everyone else. Not to be missed is the limited Baboo Gelato Easter creation, a deliciously inventive take on hot cross buns, folded into gently spiced, handcrafted gelato, worth saving room for.

The Knox

7-12 Sloane Square, London SW1W 8EG

For cocktail lovers, the festive Easter menu reimagines the classics, think rich chocolate martinis alongside floral, fruit-led creations, all paired with indulgent bites. Enjoy 50% off drinks when you order two starters and a main.

The Aubrey - The Mandarin Oriental

66 Knightsbridge, London SW1X 7LA

Celebrate Easter at The Aubrey with a little extra indulgence - enjoy a complimentary cocktail when you dive into the Classic or Premium Izakaya menus, or the Set Brunch. Save room for dessert: the cult-favourite Death by Chocolate returns with a playful Easter twist, dialled up with all its signature theatre. Available 3–6 April 2026.

Ixchel

33H King's Rd, London SW3 4LX

Built around the grill, with a Mexican asado-style Ixchel's Easter menu leans confidently into bold, smoky flavours. Slow-braised lamb, adobado chicken and a chilli-and-coriander T-bone are the favourite to order, arriving with generous sides that quickly turn the table into a feast.

Rabbit

172 King's Rd, London SW3 4UP

Celebrate Easter at Rabbit, where the Gladwin Brothers bring a countryside-in-the-city charm and seasonal British produce to Chelsea. Enjoy a set menu with Easter Sour or Sussex Bacchus, Queenie scallops, Sussex lamb, and chocolate mousse. £54 per person, drinks not included.
