Plated

1 - 31 August 2026

Various Restaurants across Chelsea and Knightsbridge

Plated arrives this August, serving up a month-long celebration of Chelsea and Knightsbridge's vibrant dining scene. With more than 30 venues taking part, it is the perfect excuse to discover somewhere new or revisit an old favourite. Participating Chelsea favourites include The Cadogan Arms, CLAP London, Sticks'n'Sushi, Rabbit, The Campaner, Vardo, and Azzurra. Come hungry and discover why this corner of London remains one of the capital's most exciting places to dine. Find out more HERE.

Build a Dinosaur Habitat

6 August 2026

Chelsea Physic Garden, £25 per Adult, £20 per Child

For young dinosaur enthusiasts and budding botanists alike, this family workshop at Chelsea Physic Garden offers a fascinating glimpse into the prehistoric world. Explore the Fernery, home to some of the planet's oldest plants, and discover how ferns once formed the backdrop to life on Earth millions of years ago. After uncovering the secrets of these ancient survivors, children can create their own mini dinosaur habitat to take home. Expect plenty of hands-on fun and a little journey through time.

Longines Global Champions Tour London

7-9 August 2026

Royal Hospital Chelsea

World-class show jumping returns to the Royal Hospital Chelsea, providing a spectacular setting for one of the neighbourhood's standout summer events. Bringing together world class riders, thrilling competition and a vibrant atmosphere, it is a wonderful opportunity to experience the sport at its finest, all against one of London's most iconic and historic backdrops.

Lates: The Sun and The Moon

21 August 2026
Saatchi Gallery

For a dose of creativity before the weekend begins, spend an evening at Saatchi Gallery Lates. On selected Fridays, Saatchi Gallery Lates combines after-hours access to The Sun and The Moon: Art Inspired by the Celestial with a programme of workshops, guided classes and hands-on experiences. Don't miss the opportunity to design your own carnival headdress, perfect for Notting Hill Carnival, with Blossom Concepts, whose vibrant creations are full of colour, character and joy.

Women in Art Biennale London

20 – 23 August
Chelsea Old Town Hall

Bringing together an international line-up of female artists, the Biennale of Women in Art is a vibrant celebration of creativity in all its forms. Showcasing works across painting, sculpture, photography and mixed media, the exhibition offers fresh perspectives, thought-provoking ideas and powerful storytelling. Expect inspiring discoveries, diverse voices and a chance to engage with artists whose work is shaping today's cultural conversation.

Beverley Skeete

21 August 2026
606 Club

Few performers command a stage quite like Beverley Skeete. With an extraordinary career that includes touring with Bill Wyman's Rhythm Kings and collaborating with leading artists across the industry, she has become known for her powerhouse vocals and magnetic presence. Bringing passion, charisma and world-class musicianship, she promises a memorable evening of live music.

National Oyster Day

5 August 2026, 6-7pm
Willett's The Cadogan, Belmond

For one hour only, National Oyster Day calls for a celebration. Head to Willett's for freshly shucked oysters at just £1 each, alongside £5 schooners and £7 pints. Whether you're a devoted oyster enthusiast or simply looking for an excuse to toast the occasion, this is one shellfish-filled happy hour not to miss.

Chelsea History Festival

1-4 October 2026
Royal Hospital Chelsea

Prepare for four days of remarkable stories, surprising connections and fresh perspectives on the past. With around 100 events across Chelsea, this year's World History theme brings together leading historians, authors, performers and explorers. From Napoleon and punk to witch trials, Shakespeare and Chelsea's hidden histories, enjoy a weekend of talks, performances, tours and family activities designed to intrigue and inspire curious minds. Find out more HERE.

Enjoy 20% off when you book tickets for three or more different events across the festival. Tickets must be purchased in the same transaction and the discount will automatically be applied.

THE COLOURS OF PUGLIA

17-30 August 2026
Hommage Art, 322 King's Road, Chelsea

This August, Hommage Art welcomes Italian artist Giuseppe D'Innella for a vibrant exhibition of paintings and hand-pulled screen prints inspired by the sun-drenched landscapes of Puglia. Celebrated for his bold use of colour and expressive style, D'Innella transforms familiar scenes into luminous works that capture the warmth, light and spirit of southern Italy. Experience this joyful collection, and join the artist for a special drinks reception on Thursday 20 August, 6-8pm.

Electra/Persona

19 August 2026

Lyttelton Theatre, National Theatre South Bank

Cate Blanchett, Nina Hoss and Ella Lily Hyland lead this gripping production, bringing together ancient myth and modern psychology in a compelling exploration of grief, identity and performance. Exploring the fragile line between who we are and the roles we play, Benedict Andrews' visually arresting and emotionally charged interpretation of Electra and Persona is set to be one of the season's most talked-about productions.

Our Story with David Attenborough

Until end of August 2026
Natural History Museum

Step inside Earth's story in this spectacular immersive experience narrated by Sir David Attenborough. As the walls and floor come alive around you, journey through 4.5 billion years of life on our planet, from the earliest beginnings to the world we know today. Blending breathtaking natural history footage with cutting-edge animation, created by the award-winning team behind many of Attenborough's celebrated documentaries, it is a powerful and awe-inspiring experience for all ages.

The Proms

August 2026
Royal Albert Hall

The BBC Proms returns to the Royal Albert Hall for another spectacular season of music. From celebrated orchestras and world-class soloists to film scores and family-friendly concerts, the programme is as varied as it is impressive. Welcoming, accessible and full of atmosphere, it's a wonderful way to experience one of London's most cherished summer traditions.

Battersea Park in Concert

28 – 31 August 2026
Battersea Park

Battersea Park in Concert returns over the August Bank Holiday weekend, bringing a vibrant programme of live music to one of London's most beautiful outdoor settings. Set beneath the summer sky, the festival pairs world-class performances with a relaxed, open-air atmosphere. Highlights include Sounds of South Africa with Jeremy Loops, Ronnie Scott's Jazz Orchestra, Pop Symphonic and Music and Musicals, making it an easy choice for music lovers of every persuasion.

Notting Hill Carnival

29-31 August 2026
Notting Hill, London

Few events capture the spirit of summer quite like Notting Hill Carnival. A vibrant celebration of Caribbean culture and community, the streets come alive with spectacular costumes, infectious soca and calypso rhythms, steel bands and world-famous sound systems. Expect colour, creativity and an atmosphere unlike anywhere else in the capital.

The Story by Tracey Scott Wilson

27 August — 24 October 2026
Olivier Theatre, National Theatre South Bank

The Story is a gripping newsroom thriller theatre production that delves into the complicated relationship between truth, ambition and the media. When a white teacher is murdered in a Black neighbourhood, ambitious reporter Yvonne Wilson pursues a lead that could change her career. As the investigation unfolds, the line between fact and perception begins to blur, raising thought-provoking questions about journalistic ethics, race and the stories we choose to believe.

2026 Hankook London E-Prix

15 – 16 August 2026
Excel London, Royal Victoria Dock

The London E-Prix returns to the capital for a thrilling season finale, bringing two days of high-speed Formula E racing to ExCeL London. Set on one of motorsport's most distinctive circuits, the track weaves through the Royal Docks, combining indoor and outdoor sections for an action-packed spectacle. Away from the racing, the Fan Village offers interactive experiences, simulators, food stalls and a closer look at the cutting-edge technology shaping the future of motorsport.
