STRAWBERRIES & SCREEN

Strawberries & Screen returns to Duke of York Square from 10-12 July, serving up all the action from Wimbledon's Centre Court

Prepare your picnic baskets and grab those blankets to catch the nail-biting action from the Men's Semi-Finals, and both Men's and Women's Singles Finals at Duke of York Square.

Enjoy pop-up bars from Comptoir Libanais and The Chelsea Grocer serving food, drinks and strawberries and cream in abundance. Aesop will also be doing a pop up with sun cream and moisturiser.

Plus, for those visiting on Saturday, grab something delicious from the Duke of York Square Market.

Visitors can pre-book complimentary VIP front-row seats from 1 July on our website which will enable you to watch the tennis in style, with a special Strawberries & Screen menu from Vardo delivered directly to your deckchair.

A select number of seats will be reserved on the day for walk ins. Due to popular demand, spaces are limited so if you are unsuccessful, please do bring a picnic blanket to watch the action from the green.

Myth and Reality: Military Art in the Age of Queen Victoria

Until 1 November 2026
National Army Museum

Bringing together over 100 works that reveal how war unfolded in Victorian Britain, from urgent battlefield sketches to quietly powerful studies of soldiers' lives, this major exhibition draws on a time when artists were sent to the front line to capture scenes firsthand, offering a renewed perspective on a defining period in art history.

Summer Concert: Chelsea Pensioner Singers

4 July 2026
Royal Hospital Chelsea

Enjoy a feel-good afternoon with the Chelsea Pensioner Singers as they return to their home stage with a lively, heartfelt concert. Blending beloved classics with humour and camaraderie, their performances, shaped by appearances from St Paul's Cathedral to local Chelsea pubs, celebrate music, memory and community spirit in its most uplifting form.

British Puddings Masterclass

25 July 2026, 11am-12.30pm,
The Cadogan, A Belmond

Gather the family for a hands-on masterclass with Executive Chef Michael Turner, creating classic British puddings, irresistible cookies, sundaes and Eton mess, with sparkling wine for adults – a delicious, fun-filled experience for adults and children of all ages. Tickets are £60 and include admission for one adult and one child.

Chelsea Al Fresco

From buzzing courtyards to hidden terraces, discover Chelsea's al fresco gems, where each spot invites you to unwind, indulge, and linger a little longer

Café Linea

90, Duke of York Square, London SW3 4LY

Near the Saatchi Gallery, Café Linea brings a relaxed, all-day energy to Chelsea. Set behind the arches of a 19th-century arcade, its hidden terrace spills out, perfect for lingering over pastries, seasonal salads and fresh pastas, with spritzes and wine carrying things easily into the evening.

Sale e Pepe

9-15 Pavilion Rd, London SW1X 0HD

Moments from Sloane Street, Sale e Pepe is an Italian dining room where classic dishes take centre stage, from lobster linguine to veal Milanese and beautifully prepared seafood. Their new Summer Spritz collection alongside the Pranzo Perfetto menu offers three courses for £38, served weekdays from 12–4pm, now enjoyed even more, on their new terrace.

Beaverbrook Town House

115-116 Sloane St, London SW1X 9PJ

Tucked away in the heart of Chelsea, Beaverbrook Town House offers an elegant and intimate escape. Guests can enjoy everything from refined à la carte dining and bar snacks to indulgent patisserie treats and an all-day menu served in stylish surroundings. From July, the menu takes on a seasonal twist with the addition of kakigori – a delicate Japanese shaved ice dessert available in strawberry or matcha – providing the perfect light and refreshing treat for summer.

Azzurra

127 – 128 Sloane St, London SW1X 9AS

Bringing a touch of the Italian Riviera to Chelsea, Azzurra pairs refined coastal cuisine with a fresh, summery energy, complemented by a chic outdoor terrace. For the season, a Wimbledon-inspired edit adds a playful twist. Light and effortlessly chic, it is an ideal spot for long afternoons and early evening aperitivo in the city.

The Ivy Chelsea Garden

197 King's Rd, London SW3 5EQ

A favourite on the King's Road, The Ivy Chelsea Garden draws you in with its vibrant florals and polished al fresco dining. From truffle arancini, crispy duck salad and chicken Milanese to the signature chocolate bombe, alongside its Summer of Sport cocktails, it is the perfect place to stay from sunlit lunches into buzzing evening drinks.

Martino's

37 Sloane Square, London SW1W 8AN

Overlooking Sloane Square, Martino's offers a chic yet relaxed Italian dining experience in the heart of Chelsea. The menu leans into Italian classics, from light antipasti and fresh salads to standout pastas such as linguine frutti di mare and tagliatelle with short rib ragù. Its generous terrace is perfect for soaking up the atmosphere, with aperitivos and refined dishes setting the tone from afternoon into evening.

Vardo

9 Duke Of York Square, London SW3 4LY

In the heart of Chelsea, Vardo makes an immediate impression with its striking glass-fronted design and one of the area's most sought-after terraces, creating a seamless indoor–outdoor flow. Its all-day menu moves from vibrant breakfasts to globally inspired plates and grills, making it a bright, lively spot that naturally draws you in and keeps you lingering.

Comptoir Libanais

6 Christchurch Terrace, London SW3 4AJ

Ease into summer at Comptoir Libanais, where golden hour stretches into long, sociable afternoons on the terrace. Expect vibrant mezze, colourful cocktails and sharing jugs, with any two cocktails and one mezze for £20, Sunday–Friday from 3–6pm, an easy prompt for a long lunch, an early finish, or a spontaneous midweek catch-up.

Bluebird

350 King's Rd, London SW3 5UU

Bluebird Chelsea remains one of the King's Road's most recognisable spots. From crispy duck salad and steak tartare to truffle spaghetti and classic fish and chips, the menu is made for mixing and sharing, best enjoyed out on its iconic courtyard terrace.
