Chelsea Arts Festival

16-20 September 2026
chelseaartsfestival.com

London's most exciting annual celebration of arts and culture returns to Chelsea this September, bringing together some of the most influential voices in literature, design, fashion and contemporary culture. Highlights include Susie Cave and Bella Freud in conversation, an evening with Booker Prize-winning author Bernardine Evaristo, and acclaimed architect John Pawson CBE, alongside a dynamic programme of talks, performances, comedy and theatre.

Alongside the main programme, visitors can enjoy free outdoor entertainment and cultural activations across the neighbourhood, celebrating Chelsea's rich artistic heritage and vibrant creative community. For the full programme, and to book your tickets, click HERE.

A vibrant promotional banner for the Chelsea Arts Festival 2026. The banner is divided into three main sections. The left section has a red-to-purple gradient background with white text. The middle section is a photograph of three young women in pink uniforms and tall white hats, playing large silver drums in front of a wall of colorful flowers. The right section has a red-to-purple gradient background with white text listing the festival's lineup. At the bottom left is the Cadogan logo, and at the bottom right is the text 'chelseaartsfestival.com'.
