Chelsea History Festival

1-4 October 2026

History takes centre stage this October as the Chelsea History Festival returns for its eighth year. Across four days, delve into the events, ideas and personalities that have shaped Britain and the wider world through an inspiring programme of talks, performances, walking tours, exhibitions and family activities.

With award-winning historians, authors and expert speakers bringing the past to life, the festival offers a fascinating exploration of history in all its forms. Discover more HERE.

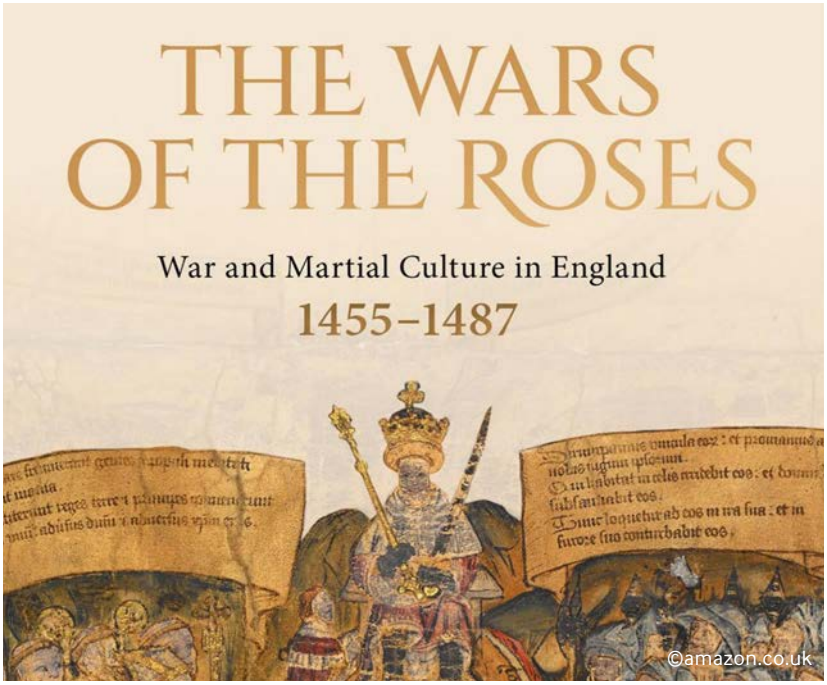

Did Espionage Win the Second World War?

3 October 2026, 6.00-7.00pm (£15.00 per person)
National Army Museum

Espionage remains one of the most compelling legacies of the Second World War. Join historians Dr Daniel Cowling, Dr Helen Fry, Tim Willasey-Wilsey and Dr Roderick Bailey as they examine the spies, codebreakers and covert operations that shaped the conflict, asking whether intelligence efforts truly changed the course of history.

The Wars of the Roses: War and Martial Culture in England

4 October 2026, 4.00-5.00pm (£20.00 per person)
National Army Museum

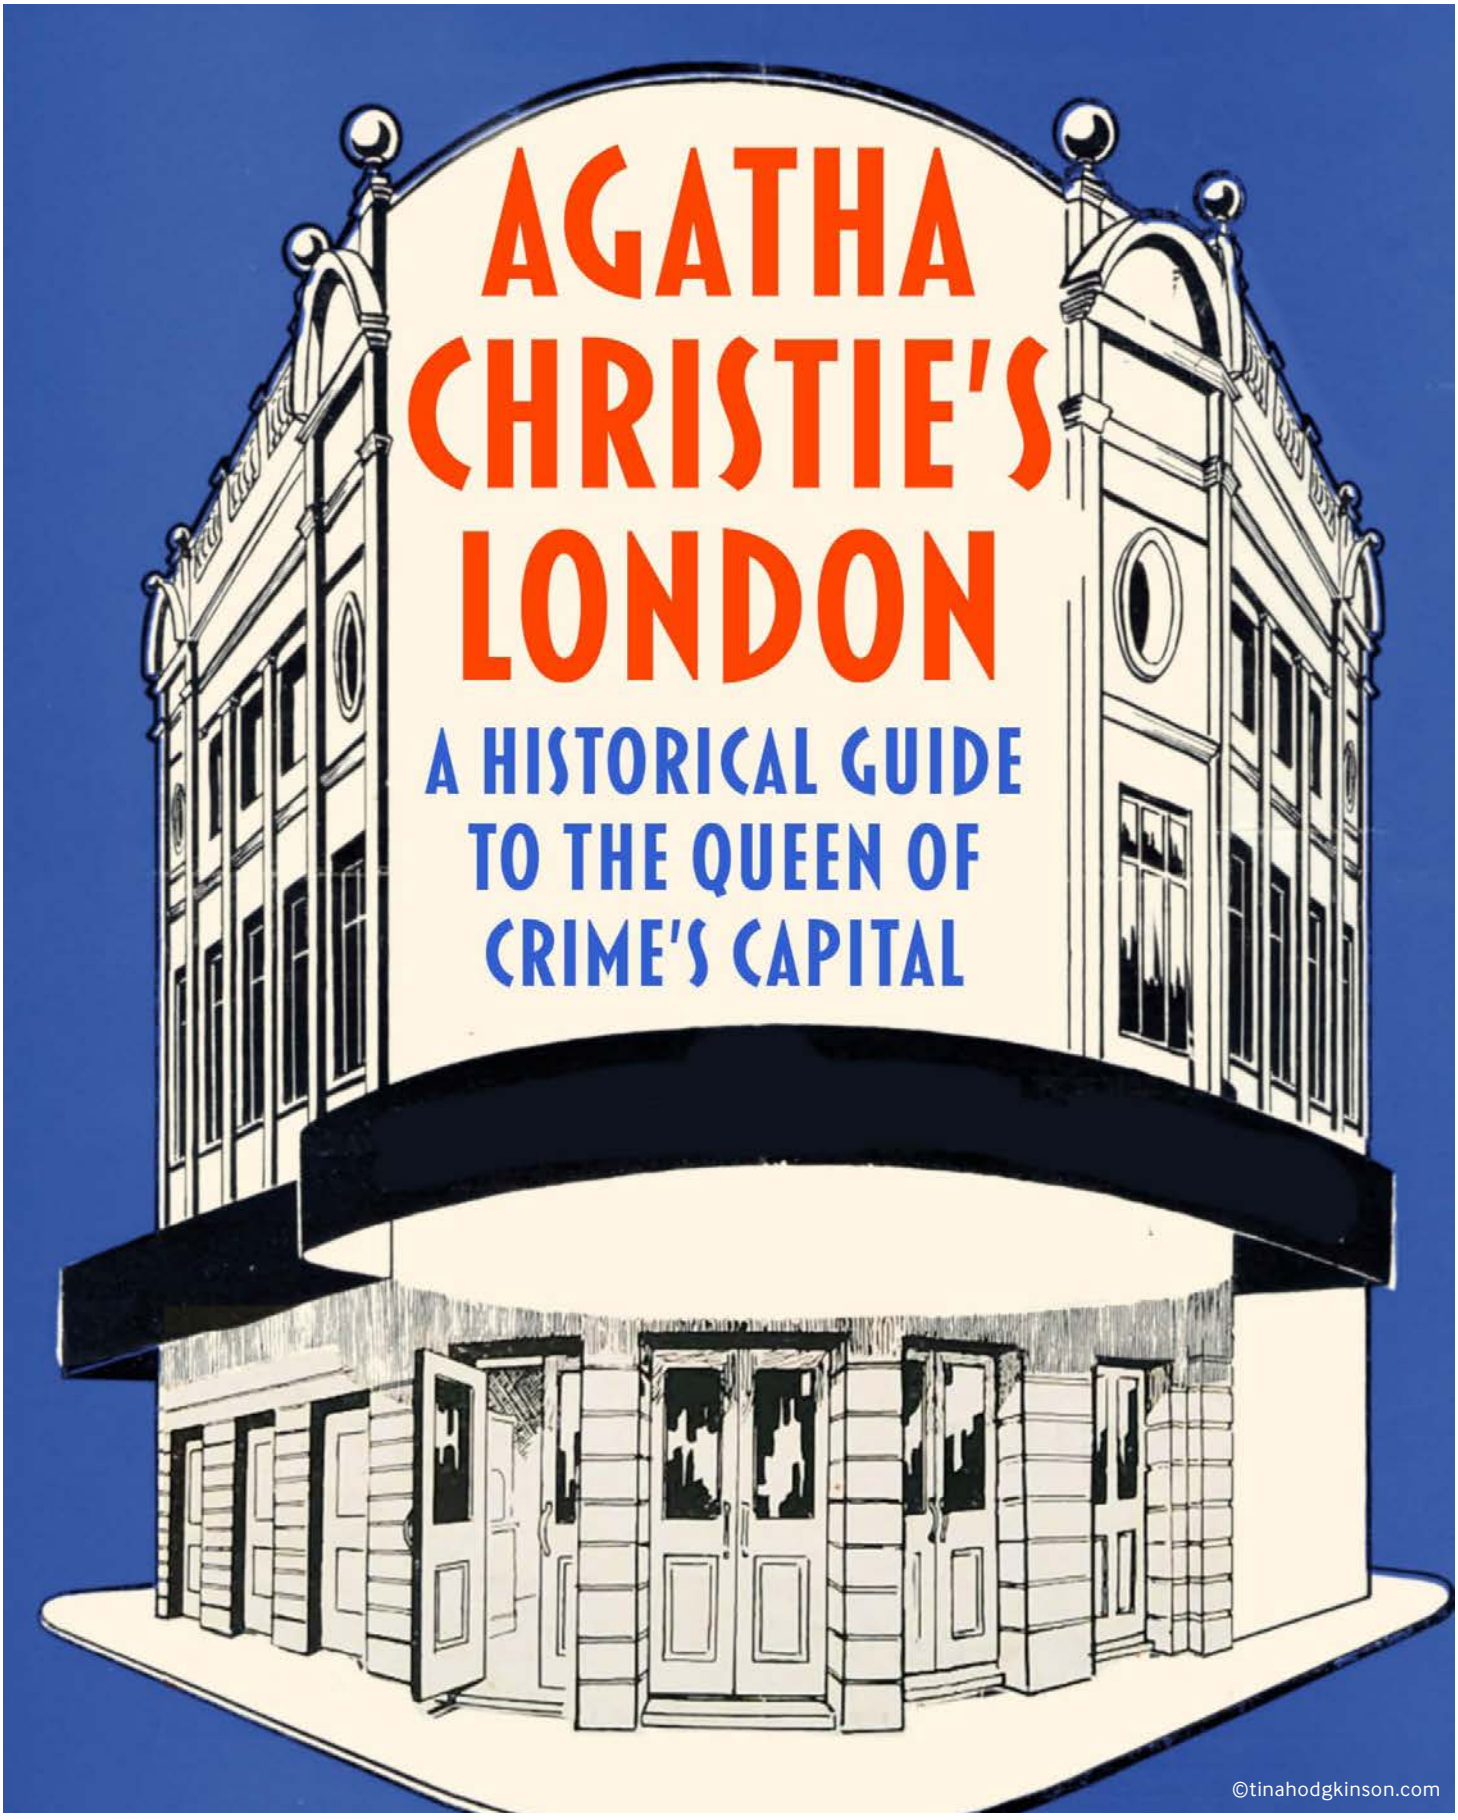

Award-winning historian David Grummitt offers a fresh perspective on the Wars of the Roses, exploring the battles, rivalries and shifting allegiances that shaped late medieval England. Examining warfare, chivalry and political power, this fascinating talk reveals how conflict transformed the nation during a pivotal period of change.

Twilight Tours at the Royal Hospital Chelsea

4 October 2026, 6.00pm - 8.00pm (£33.00 per person)
Royal Hospital Chelsea

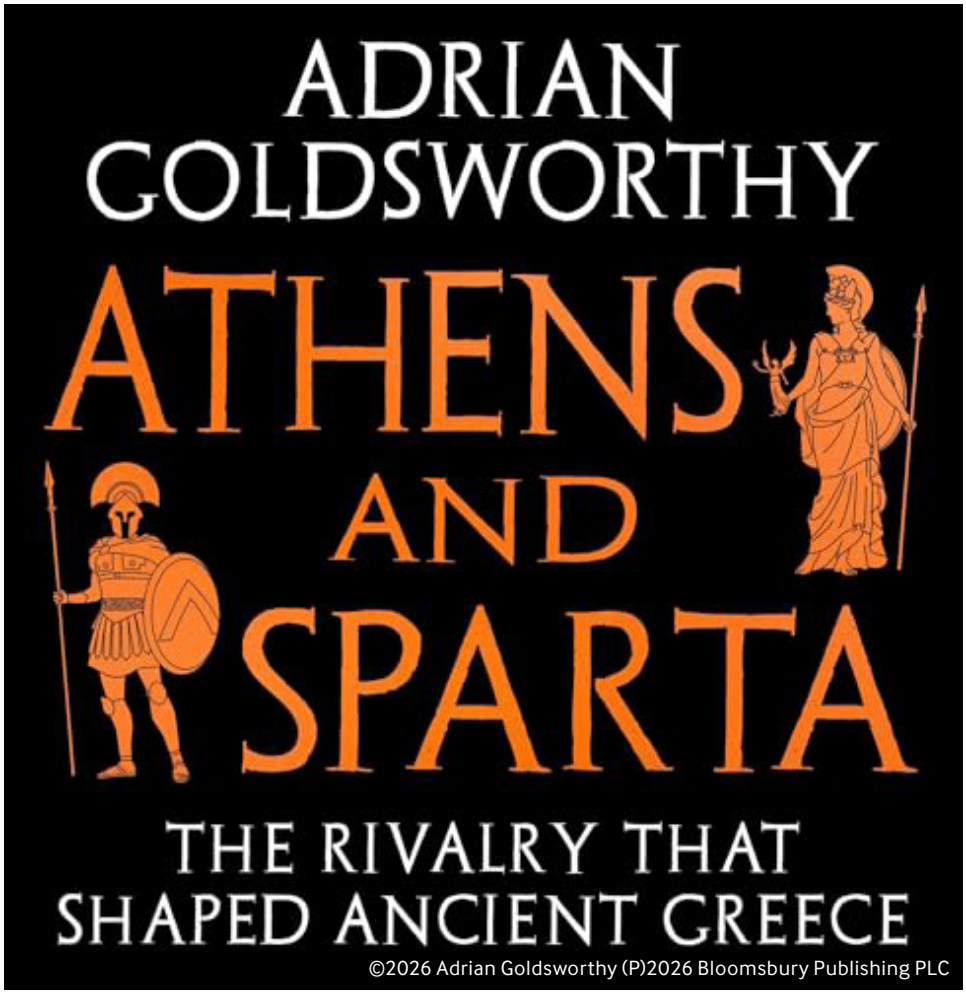

When the day draws to a close, the Royal Hospital Chelsea reveals some of its greatest charms. Led by a Chelsea Pensioner, this special twilight tour uncovers the stories behind its historic halls, peaceful courtyards and hidden corners, as centuries of heritage come to life in the golden glow of evening.

Agatha Christie's London with Tina Hodgkinson

From grand hotels and glittering theatres to quiet streets tucked away from view, London provided endless inspiration for Agatha Christie's life and fiction. Join Tina Hodgkinson as she explores the capital through the eyes of the Queen of Crime, uncovering the places, characters and stories woven throughout her beloved novels.

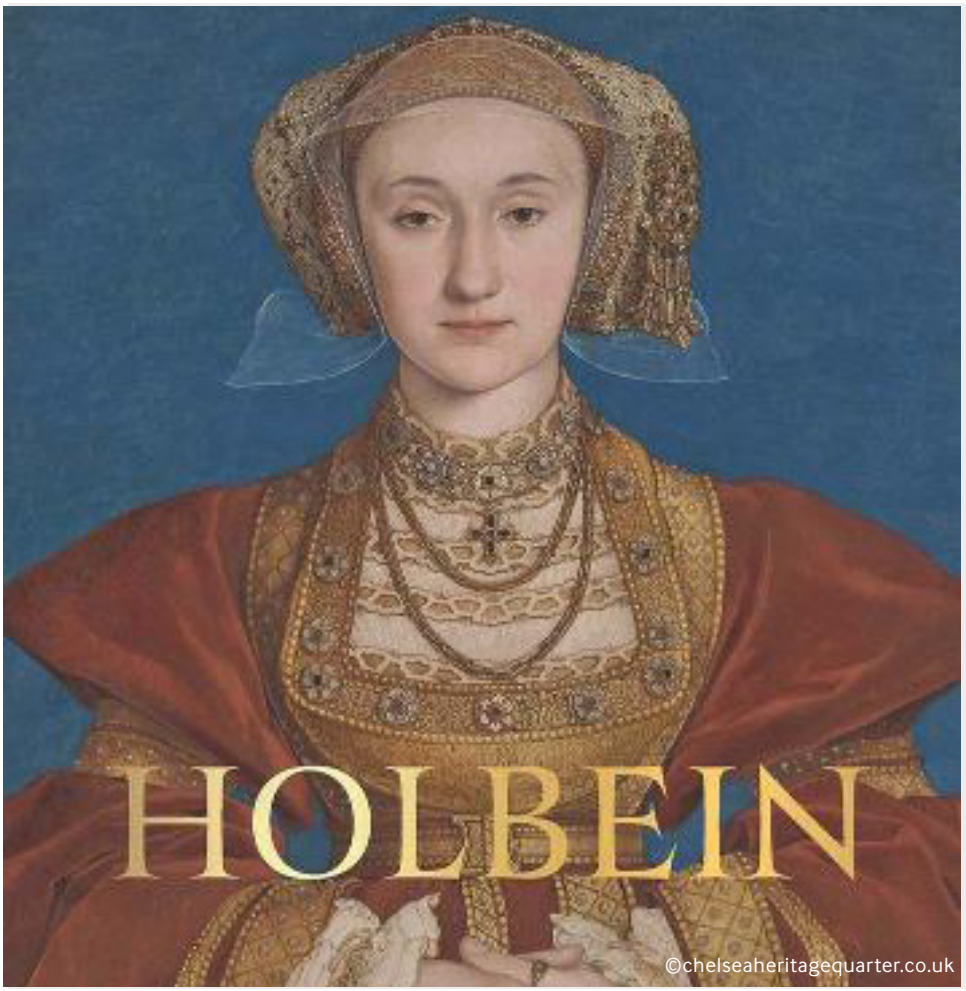

4 October 2026, 6.00pm - 7.00pm (£15 per person)
National Army Museum

Athens and Sparta: The Rivalry That Shaped Ancient Greece

4 October 2026, 2.00-3.00pm
National Army Museum

From democracy and cultural innovation to military discipline and conquest, Athens and Sparta shaped the course of ancient Greece. Acclaimed historian Adrian Goldsworthy explores the rivalry that transformed the Greek world, examining the ideas, battles and political ambitions whose influence continues to resonate today.

Holbein: Renaissance Master with Elizabeth Goldring

National Army Museum
4 October 2026, 12.00pm - 1.00pm (£15 per person)

Join Elizabeth Goldring as she uncovers the extraordinary story of Hans Holbein, the artist whose portraits became the defining images of Tudor England. From Henry VIII and his queens to The Ambassadors, discover the artistry, influence and intrigue behind one of history's most remarkable painters.

Chelsea Dog Day

3 October 2026

Paws at the ready, Chelsea Dog Day returns for its fifth year, transforming the neighbourhood into a celebration of its canine residents. From a dog-friendly market and independent pet brands to in-store treats, paw-traits, activities and dog-friendly dining, businesses across Chelsea will be rolling out the welcome mat. Make a day of it and explore Chelsea with your four-legged companion. Discover the full line up at INCHELSEA.CO.UK.

Needle and Thread

102 King's Road, SW3 4TZ
